IRISH ASSASSINS CAUGHT IN NET

FORGET CREEDS; SAVE CHILDREN

Church and Relief Bodies Are United in Work of Mercy

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Formal announcement of the organization of a European relief council, composed of eight American institutions, was made by Herbert Hoover at a dinner tonight. Continuation of American support in feeding the undernourished children of Europe was urged by Hoover, who will act as chairman of the council. The dinner, tendered by Howard B. Jackson, formerly vice-president of the United States Grain Corporation, was attended by 300 Chicagoans.

The council consists of the American Relief Administration, American Red Cross, American Friends Service Committee (Quakers,) Jewish Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Knights of Columbus, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.

This council after full investigation has decided that complete relief should be given to American relief in Europe to support starving children who have since the armistice been dependent on American charity, until the children can survive over the winter," Hoover declared.

"The war has collapsed, among both allies and enemy, in the face of the greatest famine in 300 years. In the first stage of famine the human animals eat the food of their cattle and thus undermine the production of milk. In the second stage they consume the cattle themselves. The children of the white races are dependent upon cattle for their very existence, thus famine bears hardest upon the children.

ARMY ROW IS RAGING.

Fuss is to be Aired in the Senate.

Controversy Hinges Particularly on Appointment of New General Officers.

Promotions Given Chiefly to the Friends of Gen. Pershing, is Charge.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—A tremendous row has broken out in the Army over the promotion and transfer of 15,000 officers and is destined to be aired in the Senate when appointments come before that body for confirmation.

About 5000 of these appointments are to fill new positions created by the Army Reorganization Act of June 4, 1920, while the remaining 10,000 are promotions to fill vacancies and transfers from one arm of the service to another or between the line and the staff.

The controversy is raging particularly around the appointment of thirty-four new general officers, all chosen by selection, many of whom have jumped over their seniors. Most of the officers promoted to be major-generals and brigadier-generals are said to be favorites of Gen. Pershing, chairman of the selection board and of Gen. March, Chief of Staff. One of the officers passed over in eleven promotions to the rank of major-general is Brig.-Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, who commanded the New England division early in the war and who is regarded in some quarters as a likely appointee as Chief of Staff under the Harding administration. Senator Lodge and Vice-President-elect Coolidge are expected to champion the cause of Gen. Edwards when the appointments come before the Senate.

NEW MAJOR-GENERALS.

The eleven new major-generals, all of whose commissions date from July, 1920, are James W. McAndrew, John L. Hines, Henry T. Allen, David C. Shanks, Adelbert Cronkhite, George W. Read, Omar Bundy, William M. Wright, Charles H. Muir, Charles T. Menoher and William G. Haan.

Of the thirteen new brigadier-generals eleven served under Gen. Pershing in France.

They are William Lassiter, 53 years; Harry L. Bandholtz, 56; Douglas MacArthur, 41; Hanson E. Ely, 53; Dwight E. Aultman, 48; Johnson Hagood, 47; Dennis E. Nolan, 48; William D. Connor, 46; Fox Conner, 46; Malin Craig, 45; Robert C. Davis, 44; Hugh A. Drum, 41, and George V. H. Moseley, 43. It is being pointed out that all of the seven last named officers, except William D. Connor, have been promoted from the rank of captain to that of brigadier-general since the outbreak of the war in 1917.

CHARGE LAW VIOLATED.

It is asserted that neither of these officers had reached the service limit of twenty-two years at the time that the Pershing board, prior to September 1 last, reported in favor of their promotion to be brigadiers-general. It is alleged that the action of the board in the case of these two officers at least, amounted to holding two brigadier-generalships open for these two younger officers to reach the required term of service.

On behalf of Pershing, it is asserted that the younger officers who have been promoted over the heads of their seniors were selected on the basis of extraordinary service in the war and that when the Senate committee considers the nominations it will find the general entirely justified in approving the selections.

Some of the younger officers promoted, who performed such distinguished service, it is asserted were: William Lassiter, chief of artillery in the A.E.F.; Ernest Hinds, in command of the port of embarkation at Hoboken; Hanson E. Ely, who distinguished himself in command of the Twenty-eighth Infantry in the battle of Cantigny, and later commanded a brigade; Johnson Hagood, Chief of Staff of the S.O.S. in France; Dennis E. Nolan, chief intelligence officer in France, and commander of a beau brigade; Fox Conner, chief of operations at general headquarters; Malin Craig, chief of staff of an army corps and later of the Second Army. Drum was chief of staff of the First Army and Moseley's services in the field and at hearquarters were especially praised by Gen. Pershing.

Ohio State Team is Willing to Play Western Eleven

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 23.—Although he stated tonight that a post-season football game between Ohio State and Notre Dame would not be considered, L. W. St. John, university athletic director, later said that an invitation for a game at Pasadena between Ohio State and some western team would be received favorably, should it be extended.

St. John said he had assurances that the faculty and athletic board of Ohio State would approve such a contest and that he believed sanction of Western Conference officials was probable.

Alumni of the University of California have notified him that Ohio State was being considered for the New Year's Day contest, St. John said.

Convict Minister of Bigamy and Mann Act Violation

HARRISONBURG (Va.) Nov. 23. R. D. Edwards, a Methodist minister, was convicted today in Federal court of bigamy and violation of the Mann Act and sentenced to four years' imprisonment in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

Edwards, married and the father of two children, eloped with Ruth Bailey of Staunton, Va., last August. Miss Bailey declared Edwards told her he had obtained a divorce from his wife.

Predicts Marriage Licenses of 1920 Will Break Record

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 23.—That 1920 will end with more than 40,000 marriages celebrated in California, breaking all previous records, was the prediction today of E. L. Ross, head of the State Bureau of Vital Statistics.

Ross stated that the records of his office show that over 37,000 marriages have already been performed in the State this year.

San Jose Flyer Killed at Bolling Field, Washington

NAVY NOT ACCUSED.

Headline in "Times" Created Wrong Impression, Says Admiral.

In The Times of November 13, over a New York dispatch on the Shipping Board investigation, appeared a headline "Unveil Graft on Warships." This was an error, as there was no mention of warships in the dispatch.

Admiral Rodman of the Pacific Fleet has written to say that the headline reflects upon the good name of the navy, and The Times takes this means in an effort to correct any wrong impression.

Methods of Association in Landing Contracts and Bidding Unearthed.

Mayor Hylan's Name Linked Up With That of Hettrick, Accused Lawyer.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Further testimony of the methods used by contractors' "co-operative associations" in alleged fixing of prices, and punishment meted out to offending members whose low bids violated the association's rules, was given at today's hearing of the joint legislative committee investigating New York's alleged building trust.

Workings of the estimating bureau of the Concrete Fireproofers' Association were related by Roswell F. Easton, its originator. Books of the Builders' Supply Bureau, comprising fourteen contracting firms, also were surrendered to the committee by Miss Elizabeth O'Dea, stenographer.

Earlier the hearing was marked by a sharp clash between Samuel Untermyer, committee counsel, and Grover Whalen, Commissioner of Plants and Structures, formerly Mayor Hylan's private secretary, during his examination regarding city ash dumping contracts. To these developments was added testimony of former Magistrate Frank O'Reilly of Brooklyn and two attaches of the Fifth District Magistrate's Court, concerning "more or less close relations" between the Mayor and Commissioner of Accounts Hirschfield, as law practitioners with John T. Hettrick, who was court stenographer there.

Hettrick now is a central figure in the "building trust," as operator of a "code of practice" among 400 New York master plumbers and plumbing contractors.

Easton told how the concrete fireproofers' estimating bureau, formed June 24, 1919, grew from the Master League of Cement Workers' Association, until it expanded into the Concrete Fireproofers' Association, with membership of twelve firms which individually are members of the Building Trades' Employers Association.

It was agreed among the twelve members, Easton testified, to permit the bureau to make their estimates on all proposals, then 10 per cent was added to the estimate by the firm as an overhead charge before bidding. The contractor, if successful, paid the bureau 2½ per cent of the contract. Then, at the end of the year, the bureau divided the money among the unsuccessful bidders proportionately.

"FAR FROM LEGAL."

"You may have been advised that the process was legal," Mr. Untermyer told the witness. "The committee believes it was far from legal."

The bureau figured all material and labor unit costs for the Fireproofers' Association, and upon its figures association members based their bids for contracts, Easton said, working for the elimination of the duplication of estimating and supplying "its figures to all members of the association."

Under the rules of the association, Arthur Greenfield, Inc., was fined $300 at an executive committee meeting Jan. 7, 1920, for taking a contract too low, Easton admitted under vigorous questioning by Mr. Untermyer. The minutes of the meeting were read into the record.

Easton said this was done "to protect the association" against the low bidding members.

Members did not need to pay the fines levied, Easton testified, although "he remembered" when his attention was called to it by Mr. Untermyer that each had posted a bond of $1000 or so, which might be held by the organization if he did not comply with association rulings.

Mr. Untermyer read from the minutes of the association's executive committee meeting, Aug. 26, 1917, serving notice that "each member of the association must be prepared to comply" with necessary requirements in submitting reports on contracts to be discussed.

"Every member who figures on the job in question," Mr. Untermyer read, "must first fill out the following form:

"'First, my original bid, verbal, written, was (—) dollars for the following work.'

"'Second, my final bid, verbal, written, was (—) dollars for the following work.'"

Dublin Prison Full of Suspects; Many More Being Sought

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

DUBLIN, Nov. 23.—The vigorous activities of the authorities leave little doubt that concerted efforts are being made to round up every republican suspected of being active in the outrages. The military forces are tightening the cordon about Dublin and gradually working in toward the center, as was done during the Easter rebellion of 1916. It is believed a number of republican leaders in the provinces, finding the pursuit too hot, have taken refuge in Dublin.

The total arrests to date are understood to be huge. Dublin Castle authorities admit the prisons are so full that it has become necessary to utilize the castle itself and it was in a lumber room in the castle that Peter Clancy and two others were shot yesterday.

TERROR SICKENS IRISH.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The opening of the debate on the Irish home rule bill in the House of Lords today afforded a notable contrast to the apathy displayed when the measure was under consideration in the House of Commons. The upper house was crowded and many of the members of the Commons, including Premier Lloyd George, Andrew Bonar Law and Sir Edward Carson, listened to Lord Birkenhead's speech introducing the bill.

Lord Birkenhead read a letter from Sir Edward Carson in which the Unionist leader declared he and his colleagues had made up their minds to accept the bill and work under the measure loyally.

SINN FEIN WEAKENING.

Lord Birkenhead suggested that a secondary motive for the murder of British officers in Dublin last Sunday was the influence it would have on this debate and asserted there was evidence that the Sinn Fein extremists were being beaten.

Pointing out that unless this present bill was passed, the Home Rule Act of 1914 would automatically come into operation directly the peace treaty with Turkey was rati-

REVOKES CABLE RIGHTS.

Secretary Baker Takes Action in Western Union Case; Carlton's Version.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Secretary Baker announced tonight that he had revoked permission granted the Western Union Telegraph Company last May to lay certain cables at Biscayne Bay, Miami, Fla. The permit was issued by the district engineer at Jacksonville, Fla., and the Secretary directed its withdrawal by telegraph tonight.

Secretary Baker made no explanation of his action. He merely authorized his secretary to make the statement that the permit had been rescinded. The announcement followed, however, the statement in New York tonight by Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, that his company had not only rights granted by Congress, but specific permission of the War Department to do certain cable work in the vicinity of Miami with which the Navy Department has for months arbitrarily interfered at the request of the State Department.

CLAIMS AUTHORITY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, asserted tonight that his company has general authority under an act of Congress to lay cables in all navigable waters in the United States, and a specific permit from the Secretary of War.

Carlton made this assertion in a statement concerning his company's application in the courts of the District of Columbia for an injunction to restrain the Secretary of the Navy from interfering with its plans to extend its telegraph lines from Miami to Miami Beach.

"Last April," he said, "the Western Union Telegraph Company commenced the construction of wires along the causeway over Biscayne Bay, which separates Miami from Miami Beach.

SHORT CABLE LAID.

"There are two drawbridges in the causeway, and following usual procedure and in order to avoid interruption to navigation, a short cable is laid on the bottom of the bay at each of these drawbridges. The purpose of the construction was to improve the connection from Miami to Key West, the present connection being an unsatisfactory, temporary affair to meet the requirements of government dredging operations.

"Notwithstanding the unquestioned right of the telegraph company to improve its system, further indorsed by the approval of the War Department, the Navy Department has for months arbitrarily interfered with the progress of the work by force of arms, and stated if the cable was laid they, the Navy Department, would immediately cut it. We are informed that this action was taken at the request of the State Department, although the State Department has no jurisdiction whatever over the extensions of the telegraph system.

"We have made diligent inquiry during the last eight months in an endeavor to ascertain what objection there was to our proceeding with this work, and although we have made repeated remonstrances to the State Department, we have met only with the repeated promise of that department that they would at once straighten out the matter.

"We are as completely in the dark today as we were eight months ago, except that we now know that the power of the armed forces of the United States has been used to prevent the lawful carrying out of work which was authorized by an act of Congress."

Imports of Gold and Silver More Than All Exports

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Gold imports during the first ten days of November amounted to $18,318,317, compared with exports of $12,037,619, according to a statement issued today by the Federal Reserve Board. From January 1 to November 10 gold imports totaled $333,836,965, while exports were $297,300,783.

Silver imports during the ten-day period were $1,446,790, while exports were $663,939.

Endless Chain of Interviewers Chases Miss Robertson Into Seclusion.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 23.—Driven from home, as she expressed it, by a case of nerves, superinduced by an endless chain of special newspaper correspondents, photographers, magazine writers and moving-picture photographers since she successfully ran for Congress in the recent election, Miss Alice Robertson is here from Muskogee, Okla., resting at the home of friends.

Miss Robertson attained widespread notice by her campaign, conducted largely in the classified columns of the Muskogee papers, in which she combined publicity for her candidacy and for her cafeteria.

10 FIGHT APPOINTMENTS.

Senator Jones Will Refuse Confirmation of Wilson's Selections.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Announcement that he would oppose confirmation of all appointments to the Shipping Board made recently by President Wilson was made today by Senator Jones of Washington, chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee.

"I shall do all in my power to prevent confirmation," he said. "When the shipping bill was passed it was desired that the President would appoint the board immediately and start its important work. Instead of doing that the President waited four or five months until after election, and then appointed some men who are inexperienced and unfit, although some of the appointees are good men.

"Under the circumstances, I think President Harding should have a free hand in naming the board and for the direction of its policy. I shall do all in my power to prevent confirmation of the appointees."

OTHER NOMINATIONS.

In addition to the Shipping Board nominations, many other appointments of President Wilson probably will be held up, according to Republican Senate leaders, who are returning for the session next month.

Some expressed doubt that any nominations would get through the Senate. The practice of refusing confirmation to appointments by retiring Presidents has been general in the past by both parties, it was said.

APPOINTEES TALK.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Regarding the announcement of U. S. Senator Jones of Washington that he will oppose confirmation of another appointee, also was in to the Shipping Board, Chester Rowell of Fresno, said today:

"I did not seek the appointment and I do not seek confirmation. Senator Jones's announcement will make no difference with my plans as an appointee to the board."

Joseph N. Teal of Portland, Or., another appointee, also was in San Francisco today. Mr. Rowell said: "I should judge that Senator Jones's plans will make no difference with Mr. Teal's plans either."

Mr. Rowell and Mr. Teal were to have gone to Los Angeles today for conferences with ship owners, but were detained by business.

TURKEYS SCARCE, PRICES SOARING IN MIDDLE WEST.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—A shortage of turkeys has increased the price for official Thanksgiving bird 5 cents a pound in Middle West-ern cities over the 1919 prices, and many housewives will have chickens, geese and ducks on their Thanksgiving menu, reports from turkey centers indicated today.

Chicago's supply of gobblers today, with many carloads short of the number needed, according to dealers, with the retail prices ranging from 45 to 60 cents a pound.

In Chicago, Ill., dealers quoted higher prices, their birds bringing 60 cents a pound, while prices in Iowa, were 43 to 45 cents. Other towns reported prices ranging from 40 to 60 cents.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WARSAW, Nov. 23.—The Polish troops in Volhynia are withdrawing rapidly toward the armistice line in response to the demand of the Russian soviet government that the Polish fulfill the military clauses of the preliminary peace treaty signed at Riga. A message was received in Warsaw tonight which reported the reopening of the peace negotiations there.

Activity continues between the Lithuanian forces and Gen. Zeligouski's troops. Latest accounts say the Lithuanians are defying the League of Nations commission of control, which arranged an armistice effective Sunday morning.

The Lithuanians, according to the dispatches, after having agreed to the armistice, deliberately began an offensive, gaining some ground. Col. Chardigny, chairman of the League commission, has demanded that the Lithuanians withdrew to the positions designated in the armistice agreement.

COVENANT STANDS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

GENEVA, Nov. 23.—There will be no amendments to the covenant of the League of Nations at this session of the Assembly if the decision of Committee No. 1—that of general organization—which has been considering amendments, is approved in full session.

Arthur J. Balfour, chairman of the committee, suggested it was too early to draw conclusions as to the working of the League, or to form an idea as to how the covenant may be improved. He proposed that the committee recommend the appointment of a special committee to consider amendments and report to the next meeting of the Assembly.

The Scandinavian delegates on the committee insisted upon the consideration immediately of amendments they proposed, but they were outvoted.

WAIT ON HARDING.

The South American delegates accepted Mr. Balfour's suggestion all the more readily, because they are of the opinion that any amendment of the covenant should await propositions that are expected from the United States after President-elect Harding's consultations on the subject. They declared it would be entirely out of order to revise the covenant in the absence of one of the most important nations of the world.

The committee on the international court decided to send a letter of thanks and congratulations to Elihu Root and other delegates to The Hague conference. This is as far as they have got in their work.

Antonio Huneus, head of the Chilean delegation and chairman of the committee on Admission of New Members, told the Associated Press today that his committee already was hard at work and hoped to make an early report.

News of the application of Montenegro for membership in the League of Nations leaked out today. No information was given on the subject by the secretariat of the League. This eleventh-hour application necessarily will come up on the floor of the Assembly before being referred to committee.

The secretariat of the League today communicated to the Assembly a telegram from the National Ukrainian Committee in the United States. The culmination asks the League to respect the rights of the Ukrainian nationals in Europe by obliging the Polish troops to evacuate Ukrainian territory and the Rumanian troops to evacuate Bukowina; and also asks recognition of the Ukrainian republic.

GERMANY'S PROTEST.

This morning Delegate Millen of Australia asked that Germany's protest against the League's method of apportioning mandates for former German colonies, submitted recently, be laid before the Assembly before being referred to a committee. The question went over until tomorrow.

Debate on the Polish-Lithuanian conflict, which was threatened for a time on a demand by Lord Robert Cecil for full information, was avoided by an explanation from the chair that negotiations on the subject by the Council were still in progress. Lord Robert also demanded greater publicity for the proceedings of the Council, and a promise was made on behalf of the latter to comply.

ARMENIAN PROTEST.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A protest against the proposal of M. Rene Viviani, France's spokesman at the League of Nations Assembly meeting, that negotiations concerning Armenian affairs be started with Mustapha Kemal, was sent today to Paul Hymans, president of the League, by the American Committee for Armenian Independence.

The message from the committee's national headquarters here declared that such negotiations would be tantamount to a recognition by the League of the Turkish national leader's government.

Mine Explosion Causes Death of Nine; Seven Hurt

JASPER (Ala.) Nov. 23.—Six men were burned to death today in a fire at the Parish mine of the Railway Fuel Company, nine miles south of here, following a gas explosion in the mine. Ten others were injured, six of them seriously and three of them died tonight.

According to miners who escaped injury, twenty-six men went into the mine this morning when operations were resumed following a shutdown of more than a week and when the first squad of workmen had progressed about half a mile within the drift, a terrific blast occurred. Rescuing parties were immediately organized and fought their way into the wrecked mine, removing the dead and injured. The cause of the explosion has not been determined.

Oregon Constable Arrests Man Wanted for Theft and Abducting Employer.

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 23.—Owing to the sagacity of a constable at Oregon City, a small town near here, John Doughty was in custody here tonight after police of two countries had been searching for him for nearly a year, following the disappearance of Ambrose J. Small, millionaire theatrical man of Toronto, Can., together with Canadian Victory Bonds amounting to $100,000.

Doughty, who has been private secretary to Small, was tonight in charge of Austin P. Mitchell, chief of the Toronto detective force, who said he would start from here tomorrow morning, stopping en route to Toronto at Chicago, where he said Doughty had confessed he had deposited the missing bonds. Mitchell said Doughty had agreed to accompany him without extradition proceedings.

According to the story told by Constable Edward Fortune of Oregon City, the arrest was the result of Fortune receiving ten days ago a circular describing Doughty and stating $15,000 would be paid for his arrest.

CIRCULAR IS CAUSE.

Fortune said he received the circular from Ed Richardson of Oregon City, who formerly was a detective. Fortune ascertained that a man resembling Doughty worked at the Hawley Paper Mill at Oregon City, and after shadowing the man until he could get a view of him with his hat off, as Doughty was shown on the circular, notified the Toronto police.

When Mitchell arrived he said he was skeptical as to the identity of the suspect, but after Fortune and Mitchell found Doughty at his place of residence last night, Mitchell said he at once recognized Doughty, whom he had known well at Toronto. Doughty is said to have confessed he had possession of the missing bonds, but would say nothing concerning the disappearance of Small further than that he had last seen him at a theater on the night last December when Small disappeared.

Richardson recognized Doughty in Portland from a circular he had seen a month and half earlier, trailed Doughty to Oregon City and later obtained a copy of the circular which he turned over to Fortune.

MYSTIFYING CASE.

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—The sudden disappearance of Ambrose J. Small, theatrical magnate, a year ago, and of his secretary, John Doughty, was one of the most mystifying cases in police annals. A world-wide search for Small was instituted and a reward of $50,000 for the return of the missing man or his dead body was offered.

Small, who was the owner of a number of playhouses in this city, disposed of his interests last year, receiving in part payment a check for $1,000,000. The check was taken to the bank and nothing more was seen of Small, and a few days later his secretary also disappeared.

asylums, hospitals, clinics and canteens whose doors would close but for American charity.

"At the time of the armistice Americans were carrying the burden of 200,000 children in Belgium and 600,000 in Northern France. This system was spread over Finland, Esthonia, Letvia, Lithuania, Poland, Germany, Austria, Czecho-Slovakia, Serbia, Rumania, Hungary and Armenia.

BURDEN GROWS LESS.

"With the harvests of 1919 and 1920 and the gradual economic recuperation the burden has grown less, and the harvest of next sum will greatly lighten the burden. It is not a perpetual charge on American charity. It is an emergency demand. It will cost $23,000,000, about $1 per month per child until the next harvest.

"For every American dollar, another dollar of local support is provided in equipment and food, together with a vast amount of voluntary service. We have but to supply them with their deficient milk, fats, clothing and in some countries bread, and they will succeed; without it they fail.

"To me it is a glory to the United States that 3,500,000 hungry waifs should sit every day at our table. I would rather have the American flag implanted in the hearts of the children of Europe than flying over any citadel of victory.

"Twenty years from now they will form the basis of civilization of Europe. If we are to preserve the foundations of society in the East, if we are to keep open the love of humanity in the West our duty is clear before us.

LARGEST EVER ATTEMPTED.

"This is the largest co-operative benevolent organization ever attempted in the United States. The organizations represented have come to the unanimous, though independently formed, conclusion that nothing but prompt and united action by the whole American people can avert increasing tragedy for the helpless children involved.

"The organizations forming the council will organize their representatives in every town and community of the nation for the raising of necessary funds."

DRAWING NET AROUND DUBLIN

fied, he announced that the government would not make itself responsible for a simple repeal of the 1914 act. Lord Birkenhead said he was convinced, however, that the only danger to the bill lay in a coalition of those thinking the bill did not go far enough and those thinking it went too far.

"Strange as it might seem," he said, "I think this is a favorable opportunity to effect a settlement because the Irish people are sick and tired of the horrible reign of terrorism."

The Earl of Dunraven, on the ground that the bill was not supported by the great majority of Irishmen, and afforded no prospect of a permanent settlement, moved its rejection, describing the bill as an ignorantly honest attempt to settle the Irish question on the part of the government.

A public funeral will be held in London for the fourteen British officers assassinated in Dublin Sunday, it was announced today.

MORE KILLINGS REPORTED.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

DUBLIN, Nov. 23.—Patrick Mathews, wounded at Skerries yesterday, is in a precarious condition. Two lorries of armed men arrived at Mathews's house and knocked on the door. He was asked if he was a Sinn Feiner. He replied that he was a laborite, whereupon the men opened fire.

The Dublin Evening Mail today published news of a sensational incident which is alleged to have occurred yesterday morning in the Exchange Court, resulting in the death of Richard McKee, Peter Clancy and a man named McCalune.

These men, according to the newspaper, were arrested during the week-end and kept in a room of the Exchange Court, pending transfer of the prisoners. The Mail alleges that the prisoners seized arms stored in the court and attempted to escape. It also alleges the court guard was fired on, and, returning fire fire, killing the three men.

"INNER CIRCLE" MEMBERS.

Clancy, it is said, was a member of the Sinn Fein "inner circle," which has been directing recent operations of the organization. McKee was an expert on explosives, and Maclune is said to have been an officer of the republican army.

Unidentified Dead Remain in France, Baker Declares.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The War Department is "not free to consider" suggestions that the bodies of all unidentified men be brought from France and buried in Central Park, N. Y., Secretary Baker said today, replying to a suggestion by a representative of Rodman Wanamaker, Deputy Police Commissioner of New York.

"I think the War Department is bound to continue its policy of leaving our unidentified dead in France," said Baker. "However, I am still considering a suggestion that one unidentified soldier's body be brought home and buried in Victory Hall, New York, and I will give my answer on that proposition within a few days."

PARTICIPATE IN EARNINGS OF CALIFORNIA'S LARGEST BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

Shares in building and loan associations have always been the favorite investments of extra conservative investors throughout the United States and Canada for over fifty years.

It's the same good, old, dyed-in-the-wool, State-supervised real estate mortgage security brand of investment that your grandfather swore by back in '61.

The thousands of shareholders in the Fidelity, California's largest building and loan association, will testify to the supreme desirability of our 6% certificates.

They know that their money is absolutely safe, that it has always produced a substantial dividend, and that it is obtainable (with interest right up to date) upon demand after one year.

They know that their shares are not subject to fluctuation—that the association is compelled by law to buy back its shares at face value.

If you can save a dollar a week, $50 to $100 a month, or if you have $1000 or more to invest you'll be interested in the Fidelity book. Call or write.

ASKS FARMERS TO STAND FIRM.

Barrett Advises Against Present Sale of Wheat.

Would Go to Jail Before Giving in, He Declares.

Lessening of Production is No Idle Threat.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Declaring he understood that "Federal agents are already going over Kansas, Iowa and other States trying to get evidence necessary to the indictment of men asking farmers to hold their crops," Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union today appealed to members of his organization to stand together and not sell their products at present "ruinously low prices."

"Show that you have the moral courage to go to jail, if necessary," he said. "The word seems to have been passed around that farmers were to be taught a lesson—they were getting troublesome."

The farmers' answer to claims of overproduction, Mr. Barrett said, should be: "We will simply lessen production." This was "no idle threat," he said, adding:

"From every part of the country comes the promise that this policy should be adhered to until the country wakes up to the fact that it must either go on short rations or pay you wages high enough to live on."

Efforts of the farmers toward co-operation, Mr. Barrett said, have met with strong opposition from the first. He charged that "deliberate efforts" had been made to prevent them from buying collectively.

RAILWAY MEN SEEK ADJUSTMENT BOARDS.

HEADS OF FOUR BIG BROTHERHOODS WILL MAKE APPEAL AT CHICAGO.

CLEVELAND (O.) Nov. 23.—Heads of the four big railway brotherhoods expect to be in Chicago next Monday to make a final appeal to the Railway Labor Board to re-establish national boards of adjustment. It was stated tonight by officials of these brotherhoods that they will go to Chicago in the event of the failure of representatives of the Brotherhoods now in Chicago to get the Labor Board to re-establish these boards of adjustment, which existed during Federal control.

Adjustment boards were terminated at the end of Federal control and their existence, brotherhood officials state, are necessary for the settlement of grievances that arise from time to time.

The four brotherhoods, backed by twelve railway labor organizations, are seeking to have national commissions created to adjust difficulties between employers and railway workers of all classes similar to the three boards in effect under Federal control.

"The board has handed down the award," Mr. Lee said, "and now the brotherhoods want some responsible agency to see that it is enforced evenly and in its entirety."

PARDONS MAN WHO ROBBED WOMAN.

DENVER, Nov. 23.—Among Thanksgiving pardons granted today by Gov. Shoup was one to Phillip Cohen, Fort Morgan (Colo.) produce dealer, convicted of the robbery of Mrs. Harry N. Nolan, society woman of Denver, at the Model roadhouse near here on New Year's Eve, 1917. Diamonds valued at several thousand dollars were taken from Mrs. Nolan, but were recovered.

Cohen was under sentence of five to seven years in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Nolan was robbed while in company with Father Garrett Burke of Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan joined in the application for Cohen's pardon. Cohen was "a victim of circumstances," the Governor said in granting the pardon.

Give Them A DUO-ART REPRODUCING PIANO This Christmas!

Music Is the Spirit of Christmas

"Make This a Musical Christmas"

This world-renowned reproducing piano which has been appropriately called "The Wonder Instrument" has outrivaled every other instrument of its kind by its remarkable performances with the greatest Symphony Orchestra in America.

The Great New York Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Walter Damrosch, gave a concert with the Duo-Art as soloist, reproducing the wonderful playing of Rudolph Ganz and Harold Bauer in every delicate graduation of tone and expression. It was also the solo instrument at concerts given in Philadelphia and Washington, D. C., by the Philadelphia Symphony; in Cleveland and Buffalo by the Cleveland Symphony; in Detroit and Pittsburg by the Detroit Symphony and in San Francisco, Chicago and Cincinnati by their respective Symphony orchestras.

The Duo-Art has the almost magical power to summon the playing of the great pianists to your home. Paderewski's actual touch and tone; the wonderful technique and brilliance of Josef Hofmann; the poetry of Ossip Gabrilowitsch—and all to play on your piano.

The Duo-Art is likewise a wonderful Pianola, a medium for your own musical expression—and is a fine piano for hand playing. We suggest that you come in and hear the wonderful Weber or Steck Grand Duo-Art — or the other models in Steinway, Wheelock or Stroud Pianos. Prices begin at $920. Terms.

DEATH SENTENCES IN ARMY NOT CARRIED.

CROWDER'S REPORT SHOWS THIRTY-TWO ESCAPED THE FIRING SQUAD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Thirty-two persons in the Army were sentenced to death by courts-martial during the last fiscal year, but in no case was the sentence carried into effect, says Maj.-Gen. Crowder, Judge Advocate General, in his annual report, made public today. Twelve of the death sentences were disapproved, nineteen reduced to imprisonment ranging from life terms to five years, and one case was pending on review when the report was compiled.

Only nine of the cases were for military offenses. Eight were found guilty of misbehavior in the face of the enemy, and one was sentenced as a spy.

MARINES IN HAITI SICK OF THEIR JOB.

WANT TO COME HOME; HARDSHIPS ENDURED, HOSPITAL EQUIPMENT POOR.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PORT AU PRINCE (Haiti) Nov. 23.—There is no doubt of the fact that many of the 1200 marines on occupation duty in Haiti are sick of the job. They want to go home or some place else. It is a hard life for youngsters who are sent into mountain regions in the north, along peaks as high as Denver.

Often they are away from posts for weeks, and they declare they undergo many hardships, the least of which is lack of ice in a climate where it is absolutely essential.

Since the first session of the naval board of inquiry at Washington the marines have been hearing from homefolk, anxious to know if they are taking part in "indiscriminate killings." This charge, first made by Maj.-Gen. Barnett, former commandant of the Marine Corps, and then corrected by him, has gone everywhere, marines assert, declaring that the first statement has never been overtaken by the correction. This week's steamer brought hundreds of letters, all seeking the truth about conditions. The marines contend that they are on rough duty and then are held up at home as rough men with the gun.

Maj.-Gen. Neville, a member of the naval board of inquiry, inspected every part of the fighting plant here and found many things to commend, but declared it was not properly equipped. This, he found, was particularly true as to hospital facilities. There is not an X-ray machine on the island, and naval doctors in charge assert they cannot provide adequate service for the sick. Appeals for help are said to have brought the answer that there were no funds. Haiti is not a health resort, and there is much disease.

Gen. Neville inspected kitchens built of bits of board from packing boxes.

The brigade commander and his staff have made every effort to keep intoxicating liquor away from the marines, but with almost every shop selling it, the task is difficult. Marines who have tested the native drink say it is powerful enough to drive a motorcycle.

MARK DISCOVERY OF MAGELLAN STRAITS.

SANTIAGO (Chile) Nov. 23.—With the arrival today of the Portuguese delegation, headed by Ambassador Alberto Boliviera, special representatives of eighteen countries now are in Santiago to attend the festivities incident to the celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Straits of Magellan. The celebration will begin on November 24.

DEATH BANQUET QUIZ IS BEGUN.

Northwestern University May be Rocked Hard.

Nebraska Law School Graduate Dies in Hospital.

Much Horseplay Indulged in at Celebration.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Northwestern University, the great Methodist institution at Evanston, may be rocked as a result of the investigation into the organization that staged the "death banquet" Saturday night that culminated so tragically for David Harris Cook of Plattsmouth, Neb., a graduate of the law school of Northwestern.

Cook arrived here Saturday afternoon to attend a reunion of the alumni and to celebrate a possible victory over Notre Dame in the football game. The celebration wound up when he was found dying under a table.

R. Limundo, proprietor of the Italia Hall, where the celebration was held, testified at the inquest that he had looked in on the banquet between 9 and 10 o'clock and that a lot of "horse play" was being indulged in.

MUCH HORSE PLAY.

"Most of the fellows were blindfolded, and they were beating each other, kicking things around and making all kinds of noises," he said. "I was afraid to interfere. They did about $150 damage. A cabinet was broken and chairs and tables were wrecked."

It was brought out that Cook had first been removed in an unconscious condition to Xi Psi Phi fraternity house, and from there to St. Luke's Hospital, where he died. Dean Flickinger said the banquet had been given by the dental chapter of the fraternity, organized in a part of the school over which he has no jurisdiction.

The inquest was attended by more than thirty students and two uncles of the dead man. C. H. Cook, banker of Salem, Iowa, and A. E. Cook of Malvern, Iowa, but none of them testified.

It is the belief that liquor served at the banquet may have had something to do with Cook's death, although all the others drank it and suffered no ill effects. The Coroner is inclined to believe that Cook had an exceptionally weak heart and succumbed to the excitement of the roughhouse pranks.

Market Regains Balance and Optimism Reigns.

Hogs, Shoes, Clothes, Wheat on Toboggan.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 23. — Prewar prices for live hogs became general today throughout the United States. Big receipts from the farms appeared to be the immediate cause, the total supply of hogs on sale today at the ten principal markets of the country being estimated at 182,000 head, as against 124,000 a week ago.

In Chicago the market closed at lowest since Dec. 16, 1916, and at an average drop of $1 a hundredweight, as compared with yesterday. The practical top at the finish was $10 a hundredweight, whereas on July 31, 1919, hogs commanded $23.60, the pinnacle. Five years before the current price was $8.15.

ROOFING SLASHED.

Price reductions in asphalt, shingles and prepared roofings, ranging from 2 to 25 per cent, were announced today by two large roofing manufacturers. O. A. Heppes, president of one concern, said, in announcing the price cut:

"Our new quotations are below present costs and also lower than anticipated costs for 1921. The one purpose is to stimulate business."

OMAHA PRICE DOWN.

OMAHA, Nov. 23.—Hogs sold for a lower price at the Omaha stockyards today than at any time since Jan. 15, 1917, when the average was $9.86 per hundred pounds, the United States Bureau of Markets reported.

The general yard average today was given as $9.30. Prices were 75 cents to $1 lower than yesterday.

KANSAS CITY DROP.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 23.—Hog prices were lowest here today since January, 1917. The market closed with top prices at $10.10 to $10.20, $1 to $1.25 under yesterday's average.

Unusually heavy receipts and lack of outside buying were said to have contributed to the slump.

LOWEST IN YEARS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. PAUL, Nov. 23.—Hog prices at the South St. Paul yard dropped to $9.25, the lowest since Jan. 3, 1917.

SUGAR SLUMPING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The price of sugar took another drop here today when the Federal Sugar Refining Company reduced its list price to the basis of 8.75 for fine granulated, a new low record for the season.

Other refiners lowered their quotations to 9 cents.

AT SAN FRANCISCO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Fine granulated sugar dropped a half cent per pound to 8 cents to jobbers, it was announced by local refineries today. The decline is general throughout the country, with one refiner at New York quoting at 8¾ cents.

The decline is causing best sugar manufacturers to withhold their stocks from the market, it was said by one of the local refiners. Best sugar was quoted by the Western Sugar Refining Company today at $8.80 per hundred pounds.

FLOUR OFF 20 CENTS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 23.—In line with yesterday's break in the wheat market, flour extended its decline of yesterday with an additional break today of 20 cents in the price for family patents.

One flour house reduced its price to $8.40 a barrel. Quotations range from $8.40 to $9 a barrel.

SHOES REDUCED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—Further reductions in the wholesale prices of certain styles of shoes were announced by two local shoe manufacturers today.

LEAD COMES DOWN.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. — The American Smelting and Refining Company today reduced the price of lead from 6¼ to 6 cents a pound.

MARKET SETTLING.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23. — Stocks were strong almost to buoyancy at the lively opening of today's session, heavy during the intermediate period and irregular at the close, with sales of 1,100,000 shares. These confusing movements were interpreted as indicating that financial and general economic conditions were in process of readjustment.

Technically the market's position was regarded as sounder than at any time since the almost steady reversal of the current month. More stable and reassuring features included the closing out of speculative accounts and resultant material reduction of loans.

Evaporation of war profits and throwing over of weakened margins have been accompanied by change of control in many industrial companies. What Wall street calls the "logic of events" has made the Morgan-DuPont interests dominant factors in the General Motors Corporation, the only rival of the United States Steel Corporation as a billion-dollar concern.

Commodity markets were less unsettled, but downward revision continued in many lines of raw and finished materials, ranging from steel, iron and copper to the general metal market, sugar, cotton, oil, paper and kindred articles.

RETAILERS MEET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Representatives of more than 1200 retailers of clothing, dry goods, shoes and millinery throughout the country organized the Council of National Retail Associations here today in an effort to meet the crisis in the retail trade, due to steadily falling prices.

"LOOSE BUSINESS."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Loose business practices throughout the country in recent months have led to $250,000,000 loss through the cancellation of orders for merchandise, it was declared today by H. F. Barker, an official of the National Association of Credit Men.

WOULD WIPE OUT G.O.P. DEFICIT.

Appeal for Funds Made by National Chairman.

Wants Loyal Party Men to Give Small Amounts.

Will Go Far to Placing Politics on Highest Plane.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—An appeal for contributions to make up a deficit of approximately $1,500,000 in the campaign fund of the Republican National Committee was sent out tonight by Will H. Hays, national chairman.

The appeal, addressed to the "Republicans of the Country and All Those Who Aided Them," called attention to the report of the treasurer filed yesterday in Washington, pointing out that although the buying power of the dollar was materially less than in 1916, the 1920 campaign had been conducted at less expense than the Hughes campaign four years ago.

Mr. Hays accompanied his plea for further funds by an expression of highest praise for the spirit of Republicans during the campaign. More than 50,000 individuals contributed about $2,000,000 to the fund, he said.

The Presidential campaign this year cost approximately $2,400,000 exclusive of preconvention expenditures, he wrote, leaving a net deficit of nearly $1,500,000. This, he said, he hoped might be promptly made up by popular subscriptions in amounts less than $1000, the limit set during the campaign.

"It was apparent some weeks before the election that the $1000 campaign would not result in an amount equal to our budget" the statement continued. "It was not wise to risk any substantial change in the plan of the campaign and we did not want to raise the limit.

"Of course, the easiest way to liquidate this indebtedness would be to appeal to a limited number of generous Republicans who could give substantial amounts. This could have been done before election; it could be done now, but this policy I am unwilling to adopt except as a very last resort."

KNOWS METHOD RIGHT.

Addressing the editors of Republican newspapers, the statement declared that the national committee "would have been gratified, naturally, had it been possible to raise all the money necessary by the small gift method. This, however, was hardly to be expected as this has been the first real effort in that direction."

"I know the method is right," Mr. Hays added, "and I am convinced that you and every other Republican want us to distribute the expense of campaigning in this manner if it can be done at all. To this end we are going to make a public appeal for funds and in this effort I want your help. The success of the appeal will be of inestimable benefit to future party financing and will go far in aiding our efforts to place the business of politics on the highest possible plane."

Contributions, he said, should be sent to Fred W. Upham, treasurer, or James G. Blaine, Jr., eastern treasurer of the Republican National Committee, at the committee's office, 19 West Forty-fourth street, New York.

AUTHOR IS HELD ON STATUTORY CHARGE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Amilie Conrow, said to be the daughter of D. S. Willard, millionaire New York broker, and Rudolph Bodmer of Washington, author and publisher, were arrested tonight on a statutory charge preferred by Robert W. Conrow of New York, from whom Mrs. Conrow was divorced some time ago. The arrests were made at the request of the Washington police, according to local officials.

Bodmer denied to the police that he or Mrs. Conrow was guilty of any wrong and said that they would fight extradition.

"In the divorce suit Mr. Conrow named me in making serious charges against Mrs. Conrow," the police quoted Bodmer as saying, "but the charges were untrue. Conrow was brutal to his wife and to their daughter, and after the divorce Mrs. Conrow and my two children and myself went to Washington and then came here. We planned to be married soon. We lived af the same hotel part of the time and in an apartment part of the time, but we were guiltless of any wrongdoing." Bodmer is a widower with a daughter 12 years old and a son 9. The Conrow divorce decree was granted at Paterson, N. J., last June.

STUDENT IS KILLED; DROPPED REVOLVER.

WICHITA (Kan.) Nov. 23.—The second accidental discharge of the same revolver today caused the death of James H. Blutchard, 18 years old, student at Fairmont College.

Two years ago the youth dropped the revolver and it was discharged, the bullet striking him in the foot. Today while sitting in the office of the marshal of the City Court, he dropped the revolver and it was again discharged. The bullet struck him in the chest and he died an hour later.

CABINET CONSIDERS BARCELONA TROUBLE.

MADRID, Nov. 23.—The Cabinet council held today was of considerable importance, owing to the situation at Barcelona, where arrests of syndicalists are continuing.

...ms in Rumely Trial Tells ...Where Funds Came from.

...Loans Were Advanced by ...American Coffee King.

...e Desired Paper Here, ...Hence Money Easy.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

...W YORK, Nov. 23.—Loans ag...ting more than $800,000 fur...d by Hermann Sielcken, "Amer...coffee king," were advanced ...h the German fiscal agent in ...e to Dr. Edward A. Rumely, then publisher of the Evening Mail, Walter S. Kaufmann, attorney, testified today at the trial in which he, his law partner and Dr. Rumely are charged with concealing true ownership of the paper from the alien property custodian.

Sielcken at that time was a resident of Germany, Kaufmann testified, and the loan was made in the interest of the German government's desire to acquire in the United States a newspaper with which to "expound the true German viewpoint." Dr. Rumely obtained the first loan, $750,000, when he was heavily in debt, the witness said, and later was advanced $75,000.

"SILENT WORKER."

Dr. Rumely, he continued, gave his note for the loans with an understanding that they would be canceled whenever he saw fit.

Kaufmann said he arranged all the business details of the transaction in which the Evening Mail was to be turned over to Sielcken.

The German fiscal agent, Dr. Heinrich Albert, he said, was being so closely watched by agents of other foreign powers, that they decided to employ a "silent worker" to carry out subsequent transactions. At Dr. Albert's suggestion, he added, he procured the services of Walter Lyons, member of the banking firm of Kannakorff & Lyons. Lyons was paid $5000 for his services as "go-between," he asserted.

APPEALED FOR MORE.

Meanwhile, the witness testified, Dr. Rumely had expended virtually all of the first loan in the liquidation of debts and building up of the newspaper, and appealed to him for additional funds to carry out his plans. Kaufmann said he communicated with Dr. Albert without Rumely's knowledge. He would not tell Rumely where he procured the money, he declared, because if the publisher thought loans were coming "easy" he might take advantage of the "good thing."

After consummation of the sale of the paper, Kaufmann testified, he became a director of the holding company of the organization, but did not own stock. He was acting under instructions from Dr. Albert in this regard, he added, and was told to watch the financial side. He was made a member of the finance committee.

Kaufmann said he had further instructions from Dr. Albert not to mention the fact that the paper had changed hands, and that he thought it was his duty, as an attorney, to follow those instructions.

WITNESS IN MURDER CASE ONCE INSANE?

BUTTE (Mont.) Nov. 23.—Trial of Frances Steel, a white woman, charged jointly with "Peaches" Webbe, negro, with the killing of two ex-service men here in August by poisoning, suddenly resolved into a legal battle today over the admittance of testimony given by Goldie Davis, colored, the State's witness in the case, when authorities of the State Insane Asylum at Warm Springs, identified her as Ida Allen, who they assert has been an inmate of the asylum on two occasions.

Webbe was convicted of murder last week principally upon the testimony of the Davis' woman who alleged that Webbe had confessed his guilt to her on the day following the slaying of the men.

Elderly People Need This In Medicine Chest

To relieve chronic constipation, always keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin handy.

NEARLY all people as they advance in age suffer from chronic constipation. Many, however, are indifferent to the laxative they use, on the theory that "they are all alike." That is a great mistake.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, for example, is a mild, gentle liquid laxative, and it does not lose its effect with repeated use. It so trains the bowel muscles that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with.

A sixty-cent bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last many months. The prescription was written thirty years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, a well-known family doctor, who is himself now in his 82nd year and can appreciate what chronic constipation must mean to elderly people; how it brings on headaches, colds, loss of appetite and sleep, heaviness and a general dull feeling.

Every home that has an elderly man or woman should be provided with a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought at drug stores last year. It is a truly wonderful constipation remedy.

TRY IT FREE

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

Watch Your Gums—Bleeding a Sign of Trouble

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the forerunners of Pyorrhea, that dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pyorrhea poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. These poisons often cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and other ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

A Big Truth

"Good advice is no good unless you take it."—Poinsett Parker.

When some one advises you to have your teeth fixed up, you say: "Yes, that's good advice; my teeth DO need looking after." And then you let the matter drag along, your teeth getting worse all the time.

There is only one right time to look out for your teeth, and that time is NOW. This is good advice, but it won't do you any good unless you take it NOW.

When you think of TEETH, think of PARKER.

"My trouble began with sort of an itching and burning sensation which bothered me. Then pimples began coming out on my face. Soon my face was a mass of itching, burning pimples, which disfigured me greatly, and the discomfort was terrible. I scratched the pimples and irritated them more, and some nights I lost much sleep.

"I sent for a free sample of the Cuticura Preparations and was pleased with the result. I bought more, and after using one cake of Soap and less than a box of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Arthur Sharp, Box 394, Salineville, Ohio.

CAPITAL NEEDED IN PHILIPPINES.

Inability to Interest Americans Retards Growth.

Great Natural Resources Waiting Development.

Gen. McIntyre Urges Bankers' Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Inability to interest American capital on a large scale in the nation's insular possessions, particularly the Philippine Islands, helped in greatly retarding development of the great natural resources of the islands, according to the annual report of Maj.-Gen. Frank McIntyre, Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department.

Gen. McIntyre urges American bankers and business men to interest themselves in the trade and development possibilities of the outlying possessions, declaring that large tracts of the best agricultural land in the world await development, and that in a number of fertile provinces the population falls below twenty persons per square mile, where there is an unsupplied labor demand in other agricultural provinces having a population of 250 per square mile.

EXPLORE OIL LANDS.

Action has been taken by the Philippine Legislature to provide for the exploration and leasing of lands containing petroleum and other mineral oils and gases, in which connection Gen. McIntyre says that the existence of oil in widely separated localities in the Philippines has been known since the occupation of the islands, but there has been no serious effort at development. There is now promise that in the near future it will be definitely known whether this oil exists in such a way as to be of commercial use.

The Organic Act of 1916, providing for the government of the Philippines and greatly increasing the powers of the local Legislature, has in no way disappointed the hopes then expressed, says the report.

PACKERS WOULD GIVE UP ALIEN COMPANIES.

MORRIS & CO. FILES PLAN DIVESTING STOCKYARD AND TERMINAL INTERESTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Morris & Co., the Chicago packing firm, with its subsidiary corporations, today filed in the District of Columbia Supreme Court a separate plan for the divesting of the interests of the corporations in public stockyards, terminal railways and newspapers.

Hearing on the plans for all the packing concerns is scheduled for November 30.

The stocks would be held by a trustee for five years under the Morris plan and if not sold in that time it would be offered at public action, preference being given if possible, to live stock men and to persons residing in the vicinity of the various properties to become purchasers.

Decision to request the court for permission to postpone for one week the filing of the government's objections to the plan of the "big five" packers for disposal of their stockyard properties was reached today at a conference attended by Atty.-Gen. Palmer, associate government counsel and attorneys for the packing concerns. Further time to study the packers' plan was desired.

The Cudahy Packing Company also filed with the court a separate proposal for divesting itself of stockyard interests, saying the only such interests in its possession were in the Wichita and Salt Lake City union yards.

The Salt Lake yard, the company said, would be sold outright to persons not interested in the plant.

COMMISSION RULES ON RAILROAD LOANS.

HIGH INTEREST RATES IN OPEN MARKET HELD TO MAKE ACTIONS JUSTIFIABLE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Railroads are justified in applying to the Interstate Commerce Commission for loans from the Transportation Act revolving fund when money market rates are excessive, the commission held today, even though the wording of the act provides that the carriers must show "inability to provide themselves with the funds necessary for the aforesaid purposes from other sources."

To give full force to the statute the decision said, inability to obtain funds from other sources must "be construed as an inability to secure funds upon terms which the carrier with due regard for the public interests would be justified in accepting and it must be held that an excessive rate of interest or other unduly burdensome or injected conditions which the exercise of sound business discretion will not permit, constitute inability wthin the meaning of the statute to obtain funds from other sources."

MINE WORKERS WILL CONFER WITH WILSON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23. — The subcommittee of United Mine Workers attempting to negotiate a new anthracite wage agreement will confer with Secretary of Labor Wilson tomorrow, Thomas Kennedy of Hazelton, Pa., chairman of the miners' delegation, announced today.

The miners' representatives, he said, would ask the Secretary to define the government's attitude toward reopening the award of the anthracite commission, and state whether it was intended that the operators should consider demands from the hard coal diggers for wages equal to the 27 per cent advance recently granted the bituminous miners.

Barber Gives Recipe for Gray Hair

Mr. A. E. O'Brien, who has been a barber in New York City for many years, made the following statement: "Gray, streaked or faded hair can be immediately made black, brown or light brown, whichever shade you desire, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home:

"Merely get a box of Oriex powder at any drug store. It costs very little and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in 2 oz. of distilled or rain water and comb it through the hair. Full directions for use and a gold bond guarantee come in each box. One box will last you for months.

"It is safe, does not rub off, is not sticky or gummy and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger."—[Advertisement.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heeals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream. —[Advertisement.

Are You Pretty Enough?

¶ Of course not. Nobody is. But it is easy to improve your looks. Begin with your skin.

¶ If you have freckles, get rid of them.
If you have a dark, muddy skin, bleach it.
If your skin is dry and rough, freshen it.
If you sunburn easily, prevent it.
If you detect fine lines, revitalize your skin, and do it NOW.

¶ The best and cheapest way to do any of these things is to use FRECKLE-OFF. This cream is the result of years of study of one of the world's greatest skin specialists.

¶ FRECKLE-OFF will make your freckles fade away. It will keep them away if applied under powder while out in sun, wind or sea.
FRECKLE-OFF will whiten any skin.
FRECKLE-OFF makes the skin soft and smooth.
FRECKLE-OFF prevents sunburn if used BEFORE going in sun, wind or sea.
FRECKLE-OFF keeps the skin YOUNG.
Don't take "something just as good." It doesn't exist.

INDICTED AS BOOTLEGGERS.

Several Named by Grand Jury in Secret Charges.

Ex-Government Employee and Politician Involved?

Inquiry is Not Complete, Says Attorney O'Connor.

A secret indictment, linking the names of several local well-known men with illegal liquor traffic here, was returned late yesterday afternoon in U. S. District Judge Bledsoe's court by the Federal grand jury. Though the names in the indictment were withheld by U. S. Attorney O'Connor, pending service of the warrants, it is reported they include a former Federal employee, a prominent State politician, a leading business man and at least one dealer or broker in liquors.

The indictment was returned following a lengthy session of the grand jury in the offices of Attorney O'Connor, during which approximately a score of witnesses were heard. These included business men, solicitors and one bank official.

U. S. Attorney O'Connor admitted last night that the secret indictment involves several well-known persons and said their indictment does not complete the investigation of the Federal grand jury. "We are going right along with the inquiry into the activities of the alleged bootleg ring, as we have been doing for many weeks, and though we have found several phases of the quiz relative to this particular community we are not through yet," he said.

Wants to Muffle Dance-Hall Jazz; His Hotel Hurt.

The music at Benjamin B. Carmichael's dance hall at 748 South Figueroa street is becoming too frequent and too jazzy for the customers of the Abby Hotel, Eighth and Figueroa streets, according to George Blake, the owner of that factory, who complained yesterday to the Police Commission.

"I have forty-nine rooms, the occupants of which are disturbed by the dances," said the hotel owner, and after a few sleepless nights my guests give up their rooms and seek quieter hotels."

The Police Commission cited Mr. Carmichael to appear next Tuesday morning to tell about his dance hall. In the meantime City Prosecutor Ridley will look up the law to ascertain if a dance hall can be adjudged a nuisance per se, for the reports to the commission indicate that the place is conducted in a lawful, orderly manner.

The Price of Mullen & Bluett Clothes is the Price of Satisfaction

It is too often the case that prices and satisfaction are separated, but if ever these two factors were united in ready-for-service clothes, it is in the finely tailored woolens of the Mullen & Bluett Fall suits and overcoats. Fabrics and workmanship alike are the very salt of satisfaction.

SUBMARINE BASE SITE IMPRESSES EXAMINERS.

Congressional Committee Visits Area Which Rodman, Shackford Declare Ideal for the Navy's Purposes.

Characterizing the spirit of this city in offering the Navy a submarine-base site worth upwards of $500,000 as a splendid piece of patriotism, Congressman Fred Britten of Illinois declared yesterday, after looking over the proposed site with a special committee of the House and Senate, that he is most favorably impressed with conditions at Los Angeles Harbor and that the city's amazingly generous offer will be carefully considered by the committee in making its recommendations regarding extension of naval defenses on the Pacific Coast.

"In offering the Navy such a site as has been proposed for a submarine base at the harbor the city of Los Angeles cannot be regarded as a municipality seeking to further some selfish aim, but must be regarded in the attitude of giving the Navy praiseworthy support," said Mr. Britten.

Senator L. H. Ball of Delaware, chairman of the Joint Committee on Investigation of Naval Defenses, declared that the committee could not commit itself or express an opinion regarding any of the investigations it has been making on the Pacific Coast, but admitted that practically all of the proposed naval defenses, which have been asked for by the West will ultimately be created, and that the development of the several projects will simply be a matter of taking them in the order of most urgent necessity.

Six Senators and six Congressmen, comprising the special committee, visited the harbor yesterday as guests of the city and Chamber of Commerce, and made a careful investigation of recent harbor developments together with an inspection of the site which the city proposes to give the government if it will establish a submarine base there. This is a tract of more than fifty acres of tidelands lying just below the bluff, under the very nose of the Fort MacArthur fortifications.

The delegation of more than 100 persons was met at the plant of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company by Rear-Admiral Rodman, Commander Shackford of the Submarine Base, and other naval officials. The party boarded a submarine chaser and was taken directly to the area, where Commandant Shackford and Admiral Rodman explained in detail the proposed work and emphasized its urgency.

Capt. Shackford made the flat assertion that the immediate vicinity of Los Angeles Harbor is the best training ground for submarines on the California Coast. He explained that San Diego is not highly desirable because of the rocky bottom of the ocean, upon which submarines cannot land without danger of damage. He said also that points at San Diego and to the north of that harbor have such dense kelp fields that they are not safe for operation of training submarines. Admiral Rodman said that submarine training crews at San Diego had to work south into Mexican waters to get a clear field for the recovery of torpedoes, and that already the Mexicans have gained possession of two torpedoes which went wild.

A smooth sandy bottom such as the sea at and near Los Angeles Harbor possesses was described by Commandant Shackford as ideal for conducting submarine schools. He says that practice torpedoes, which cost $7500 each, are most easily recovered there. In his opinion the submarine base should be placed upon the tidelands, because it will there be under the protection of the fort's big guns; it should be at Los Angeles Harbor because the water is smooth and the bottom sandy; and should not be at San Diego, because the fleet of destroyers which is to be kept there, will always hamper the submarines, because of congested traffic in the water lanes. He thinks Los Angeles harbor is capable of accommodating a fleet of seventy submarines.

Admiral Rodman declared that Los Angeles Harbor "is as smooth as a millpond," and better for all naval purposes than New York Harbor or Hampton Roads. He says that as time goes on he will conduct more and more naval maneuvers here, and that he will probably have the Pacific Fleet do more training near Los Angeles Harbor than in the vicinity of all other harbors on the Pacific Coast. He highly commended the progressive and helpful spirit of the Los Angeles people and told the special committee of the House and Senate that if they cared for his opinion he'd like to drive home the point that this harbor should have all the financial assistance possible. He said that in his belief extensive improvement of the inner harbor will be of great assistance to the Navy, since he intends to use the inner harbor to take care of the fleet's overflow from time to time.

Admiral R. E. Coonts, chief of naval operation and highest ranking officer in the United States Navy, went on record as favoring the improvements most needed on the Pacific Coast in the order of their importance. The joint committee will submit final recommendations to the House and Senate in December. The committee attended a theater party here last night and left early today for Riverside to inspect March Field.

In the inspection party yesterday were Mayor Snyder and the members of the City Council, the members of the Board of Supervisors, officials of the Los Angeles and San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, officials of the Southwestern Shipbuilding Company and the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, Congressman Osborne, Col. Hatch of Fort MacArthur and a large number of Navy officials, headed by Admirals Coonts and Rodman.

DOVE OF PEACE IS SHOOED OFF.

Mrs. Hanlin Rejects Hubby's Reconciliation Offer.

Would Have Him Restrained from Further Battles.

War of Words Follows That of Bullets and Billies.

"He tried to make too much out of 'something good' and I tried to make something out of nothing, but it looks as if both of us have failed."

Sitting in her richly-furnished home at 2648 Raymond avenue last night, half indignant, half-worried, Mrs. Gertrude Hanlin, wealthy wife of Edward N. Hanlin, thus summarized the domestic tangle which ended in the shooting the night before of Miss Dorothy Larry, 16, and the wounding of two detectives, and led to the arrest of Hanlin and two others, Ralph Cedar and Hans Christensen, motion-picture man, on a charge of assault with intent to commit great bodily harm on E. J. Ross, one of the detectives.

A few minutes before Mrs. Hanlin gave expression to her thoughts on the subject of husband and the frailties of man, Mr. Hanlin, released from jail on $500 bail, called her on the telephone and expressed his regrets that the affair took place, she said. "He asked me to forgive him and said he was sorry and all that sort of stuff, but there's nothing doing. I've had this namby-pamby stuff for more than four years. That's enough," she told Detective Nick Harris and the newspaper men. Later in the night Mrs. Hanlin began to fear that her husband would make another attempt to reach her, and left the Raymond-avenue home to spend the night with friends. "In the morning we will ask for a restraining order to keep Mr. Hanlin from calling or bothering Mrs. Hanlin in any way," Mr. Harris announced after he took Mrs. Hanlin to the home of her friend.

A few minutes after he had been arraigned before Justice Hanby on the assault charge, Hanlin was served yesterday with papers in a divorce suit in which his wife charges him with misconduct with other women and with cruelty toward herself.

All three men are out on $500 bail each. Their hearing was set for December 3. Miss Larry, stepdaughter of Hanlin, is at the Good Samaritan Hospital. She was shot in the leg and painfully injured, but will recover. Ross and Juan Fuentes, the two detectives were about their business yesterday, somewhat sore, but still on deck.

In interviews with reporters at the City Jail Hanlin denied that he had gone to the Raymond-avenue house to start trouble and said that the fight started when the two detectives there refused to let him take his clothes. He said that he did not fire the shot that struck Miss Larry. He also said that Mrs. Hanlin has an income of $2500 a month.

Mrs. Hanlin's version is somewhat different. In the divorce complaint filed by Warren Williams, her attorney, Mrs. Hanlin charges that Hanlin was guilty of misconduct with an unnamed woman at the Oneonta Hotel, November 21. She also says he locked her up in her room on one occasion at the Van Nuys hotel, and on other occasions swore at her and in other ways was cruel to her.

"I had these things ready for him," she said last night, pointing to a trunk, a suit case and a few personal belongings stacked up near the door. He was to call for them, and the two detectives were here to see that there was no trouble, because I feared his temper. Instead of getting his things he walked into the house and started the fight."

SICHOFSKY IN JAIL HERE.

Self-Styled Nobleman Promises to Rock Local Society With Revelations.

Promising to "rock the foundation of Los Angeles society" by sensational disclosures, Albert Sichofsky, self-styled Polish nobleman now confined in the City Jail on a warrant charging him with swindles totaling $7500, last night vehemently protested his innocence and declared that he himself has been the victim of swindlers among the "high society folk."

Sichofsky, who is a well-tailored man of small stature, was visibly nervous and his conversation a trifle incoherent as he was interviewed shortly after his arrival in the city from Albuquerque, N. M., whence he was brought yesterday by Detective Sergeant Jones.

"All is not told," said Sichofsky. "I, myself, have been swindled and I will soon tell the truth about the matter and produce the proof. Does it stand to reason that a man such as I, owning a $15,000 gold-trimmed automobile and having a liveried chauffeur and plenty of money, would stoop to cheat someone out of seventy-five hundred?

"But it's not the charge I hate so much. It's the girl who has been dragged into this—the girl for whom I'd give my life's blood. Do you think I could have disgraced her confidence in me by being a cheap swindler? All the detectives and the papers are on the wrong track and I'll show them that I am the one swindled out of more than $8000.

"This is the first time I ever set foot in a jail and the record they say I have is wrong. I did have trouble over passports but I came to make America my home and to invest my money here. Jails were made by men for men, anyway, and not for women, so I'm not at all afraid of being here."

The count, as he was known in Hollywood society circles, cut a considerable swath here and his gay parties and apparently vast resources won him much popularity. Then he departed and Drs. O. M. Justice and S. Levin complained to the authorities about an asserted swindle promoted by Sichofsky. He was arrested at Albuquerque while en route to French Lick, Ind., for his health, as he now explains.

The girl to whom Sichofsky refers went to local Federal officers yesterday after learning of the arrest and ascertained that Sichofsky is the same man who had won her love and who now declares his love for her. She is of a prominent family and her name was withheld.

Albert Sichofsky.

TO ERECT NEW MAIL BUILDING.

Station for Receiving and Distribution to be Built on Central Avenue.

Because of the congestion at the local postoffice, due to the great growth of the city, plans of Postmaster Brown for the erection of a building on Central avenue, between Third and Fourth street, for the handling of all incoming and outgoing mail, including the distribution to the various stations and substations, have been approved by the Postoffice Department in Washington, it became known here yesterday.

The building will be 200x200 feet in ground area, two stories in part, with a basement, and will cost about $100,000 to build. It will provide about 75,000 feet of floor space. The building, which will occupy the site of the old market buildings, will have a light area on all sides, a most necessary thing in the handling of mail.

It is estimated that by the new arrangement the government will save not less than $25,000 a year in truck hire alone, as all mail will be handled through the new station, with spur tracks to convey the mail cars to the door. There will be no general delivery at the new station, though boxes will be provided for the accommodation of business men of the vicinity.

At the present postoffice quarters in the Federal Building, the work will be confined to delivery, money order, parcel post and registry operations and sale of stamps.

Made absolutely necessary by the growth of the postoffice business in Los Angeles, alterations in or additions to the present postoffice facilities have been under consideration for some time. For a time it was proposed to use a portion of the upper floors of the Federal Building for the accommodation of the postoffice, but only about 5000 additional feet of floor space could be made available in this way.

At last a local investor was interested in a plan to build a new station at a rental that was satisfactory. According to Postmaster Brown work will begin in a few weeks.

MAN INJURED BY CAR DIES; GIRL IS LOW.

Auto Driver is Sought by Police; Officers Arrest Five Score for Speeding.

One man is dead and a young girl is expected to live only a few hours as a result of motor accidents in and about Los Angeles yesterday. The dead man is Solomon White of 218 South Johnston street, who was struck early yesterday morning at North Broadway and Johnston street. The girl is Miss Mary Cansadelli of Alta street and North Broadway.

Mr. White was struck by a machine driven by Dr. H. S. Frasig of 2121 North Broadway and a machine driven by E. P. Bailey of 524 South Eastlake avenue which was following passed over him. He died yesterday morning of his injuries.

Miss Cansadelli was struck by a roadster driven by an unknown man. The police yesterday instituted a search for the driver and believe that they have clues which will lead to his arrest.

S. M. Larson who backed into Miss Lulu Chilberg and painfully injured her was taken into court yesterday and entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of reckless driving.

Ralph Hughes, a soldier from the Arcadia Balloon School, was found guilty of reckless driving yesterday and will be sentenced today. Hughes ran into a garbage wagon at the corner of Fourth and Main streets Monday night. It was shown in court that he had been drinking.

During the day yesterday 337 arrests were made for violation of the traffic laws of the city. This is 100 less than the day previous. Ninety of the arrested were charged with speeding.

Horse Fatally Injures Newly Married Actor.

Word was received here last night from Douglas, Ariz., that Howard Milcrest, 28 years of age, cinema actor for the Marshal Neilan company, residing at 1817-A Bellevue avenue, was killed in the Huachuca Mountains, near Fort Huachuca, Ariz., Monday, when he fell from his horse on location and was trampled on. His body will arrive here today.

Mr. Milcrest had been married only a few weeks and the Photoplayers' Equity Association, of which he was a member and to which news that he was injured was conveyed Monday evening, did not inform his bride, hoping that a message would come later, saying that he would recover.

Mr. Milcrest had been in pictures about ten years and had worked with D. W. Griffith and others in several notable films.

BURGLAR, EX-JOCKEY, GIVEN PRISON TERM.

Frank Mesa, who at one time drew plaudits at Arcadia as a jockey for E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin, was sentenced to San Quentin yesterday by Judge Willis for from one to five years for second degree burglary. He pleaded guilty, admitting he entered the house of I. Fukuloni near Arcadia last September 20. He applied for probation, which was denied.

TWO SAY WOMAN HELD REVOLVER

Beach Slaying Witnesses Put Blame on Maybelle Roe.

Dead Man's Widow and Driver of Taxi Tell of Fight.

Neighbor Gives Clews Likely to Locate Lost Gun.

Eye-witnesses told the tragic story of the shooting of McCullough G. Graydon, slain in a dispute over possession of a bungalow at Venice on September 1, when the case was resumed yesterday in Judge Willis's court.

Two witnesses, Mrs. Winifred Graydon, widow of the deceased, and C. L. Atkins, a taxicab driver, testified they saw Mrs. Maybelle Roe, who is the first of the four accused to be brought to trial, fire the fatal shot. Mrs. Graydon was recalled to the stand and cross-examined by Jud Rush, of counsel for the defense, for more than an hour. She stuck to her first account of the shooting and the events that led up to it.

Indications of a solution of what became of the revolver with which the shooting was done came in a startling statement on the stand by Mrs. Mary Capp, a neighbor of the Graydons. She testified that after the shooting she met Edward F. Doane, one of the defendants, and husband of Mrs. Julia Doane, another defendant, at the gate leading from the back yard of the bungalow. She said Doane's hands and clothes were covered with blood. She said he mentioned that he had been down the street to dispose of something he had in his pocket, which if found, might cause his arrest.

Whether this was the revolver with which the shooting was done, she could not say. Mrs. C. Westren, another neighbor, said she saw Doane about the automobile in which the party had arrived near the scene of the tragedy. She said she examined the car before this and found no bullets in it, but the police of Venice afterwards showed her bullets they found after Doane was near the car.

C. L. Atkins, the taxicab driver, employed by Graydon, told of hearing Mrs. Roe demand admittance to the house. Mrs. Graydon, he said, first refused to admit her, but later did so. A fight followed a short argument. He said Mrs. Roe struck Mrs. Graydon and that Oscar Bowers, another defendant, struck Graydon, but he did not see who struck other blows because of a general mix-up. He said he saw Mrs. Roe shoot Graydon in the back. This was also the statement of Mrs. Graydon.

The witness denied seeing Mrs. Roe on the lawn and Miss Joan Marshall, sister of Mrs. Graydon, on top of her. He said Bowers struck the first blow.

Mrs. Lucy Ralls testified that she saw Mrs. Roe strike Graydon, and that she had something in her hand, but she did not see what it was she held. She did not see the shooting.

TESTIFIES IN DASHES.

WHISKY SELLER JAILED.

Max Basch, a clerk in a local employment office, pleaded guilty to selling a pint of whisky for $12.50 and was given ninety days in the County Jail by U. S. District Judge Bledsoe yesterday. An attempt was made to get Basch off with a fine, but the court would not permit it, saying that in the interest of the enforcement of the prohibition law it was necessary to send violators to jail.

ONE WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Of Interest to Expectant Mothers.

Goshen, Ind.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with good results after I had suffered for some time with female trouble. Some years ago I had twin boys and took your Vegetable Compound before they came, also before my four-year-old boy was born, and afterwards, and think it fine for such cases. I tell others what it did for me and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. Geo. A. Foos, 711 S. 9th St., Goshen, Ind.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong and this good old fashioned root and herb remedy contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

Efficient Housewife Will be Prepared, Chef Says.

Suggests Getting Sauces and Desserts Ready Today.

Many Recipes Given in Reply to Increasing Queries.

BY A. L. WYMAN.

[Chef Wyman will give tested and proved recipes for any dish that the readers of The Times may ask. All questions will be answered in this column every Wednesday. Address all requests for recipes to A. L. Wyman, 4229½ Woodlawn avenue, Los Angeles.—Ed.]

Tomorrow being Thanksgiving the efficient housekeeper should today prepare the things that will stand without spoiling. Make today the cocktail sauce, the salad dressing, salt the almonds, make the cranberry sauce, boil the sweet potatoes, and make the dessert. Be sure that all supplies are in the house today.

Readers who wish recipes for Christmas and New Year dinners will help by sending in their requests as soon as possible.

I cannot answer or give instructions by mail, but all requests will be answered in this column.

F. L. P., Hollywood postoffice, has wanted a recipe for Louisiana gumbo filet for a long time and wants to know if we can help him. The recipe that I give is one that was given me in New Orleans a number of years ago.

Place in a pot or large saucepan two chopped onions with two tablespoons of butter and fry until the onion is brown. Add to the onion one medium chicken cut in pieces, half-pound ham cut in pieces, half-pound veal cut in pieces, two dozen okra pods cut in thin slices; cook twenty minutes or until all are evenly browned. Add two quarts of hot water, cover the pot and simmer one hour; add half teaspoon salt, quarter teaspoon cayenne, quarter teaspoon thyme, quarter teaspoon marjoram and four tablespoons tomatoes. Simmer another hour or until the chicken can be picked from the bones with a fork; remove the chicken, strip the meat from the bones, cut in small pieces and return to the pot. Add two dozen oysters and two dozen cooked pealed shrimps and cook ten minutes or until the oysters are plump. Remove from the fire and stir in two tablespoons Creole file (sassafras powder.) Serve in a border of cooked rice or place two tablespoons of rice on each plate when serving.

J. P., Los Angeles, requests recipes for cream sauce for potatoes and steamed dumplings. For the cream sauce put two tablespoons of butter in a saucepan and stir until melted and bubbling; add two tablespoons of flour and when it is thoroughly blended stir in slowly one cup of milk and keep stirring until sauce is smooth and glossy; season with salt and pepper and mix with the cooked and strained potatoes.

For the dumplings sift one and one-half cups of flour with two teaspoons of baking powder and quarter teaspoon salt, stir in half cup of milk, one egg, and mix to smooth batter. Drop a small spoonful at a time into boiling salted water or stew; cover and let cook ten minutes, drain in a collander.

A. R. R., Los Angeles, wants a recipe for potatoes O'Brien. To make this dish fry four cups of potato cubes cut in half-inch pieces in deep, hot fat, drain and season with salt. Put two tablespoons of butter in a saucepan with one tablespoon of minced onion and cook two minutes, add four pimentos cut in small squares; when the pimentos are hot add the potato cubes, mix well, turn out on deep serving dish and garnish with chopped parsley.

F. M., Pomona, asks for a good recipe for remoulade dressing to serve with cold chicken. Care should be taken in making this dressing, for if it is carelessly made it will curdle. To make, place in a bowl the yolks of three hard-boiled eggs that have been pressed through a sieve, add half teaspoon made mustard, one tablespoon tarragon vinegar, half teaspoon salt and a little cayenne pepper. Mix smooth and drop by drop add four tablespoons olive or salad oil; when well mixed add the yolk of one raw egg and beat light. Add gradually the juice of half a lemon. Good for fish and meat salads.

D. F., Los Angeles, would like to know how to make an orange fizz. To make you will need a cocktail shaker. Place in the shaker half-cup orange juice, one tablespoon lemon juice, one egg white, one tablespoon grenadine syrup and a dash of salt; fill shaker with cracked ice, cover and shake well. Strain into a tall fizz glass and fill glass nearly full with seltzer.

W. B. W., San Gabriel, wants to know how to make a stuffing for a roast that will not be pasty. Use fresh bread crumbs in any stuffing in place of stale crumbs and moisten with a little melted butter and orange juice.

J. P. M., Ventura, requests directions for the proper method of boning and preparing a sole. Mrs. M. is lucky to have the sole, as the majority of fish sold in the markets for sole is flounder.

To bone the sole lay the fish flat and with a sharp knife cut down the backbone. With the knife carefully remove the fish from bone on both sides of the backbone; place fillets skin side down and with a sharp knife remove the skin.

A nice way to prepare fillet of sole is to dip them in seasoned melted butter, and then roll in fresh, fine bread crumbs. Sprinkle with melted butter and pan broil a nice, light brown. Serve on a hot plate with tartar sauce and garnish with lemon slices and sprigs of parsley.

ON MAID FRAUD CHARGE.

Leslie Covinsky, who is wanted in Salt Lake City on a mail fraud charge, was held by U. S. Commissioner Long yesterday in a bond of $1500 for his removal to Utah for trial, and his preliminary hearing was set for December 23.

Let Us Give Thanks

THIS year marks the anniversary of the landing of our Pilgrim fathers.

When, in 1620, they stepped on the friendly shores of America to embrace freedom, they little dreamed they would leave this precious heritage to a people that, in 300 years, would become the mighty nation it is today.

Grateful for Liberty, they trod on hallowed ground, and blessed it with praise and thanksgiving!

Just as our forefathers raised their voice in gladness for Liberty achieved, let us now give thanks for its preservation.

Freedom implies responsibility; those who cherish it must defend it.

How well this Nation recognized its duty has been told gloriously on the fields of France.

Today this Nation—undisturbed, prosperous and adjusting itself sanely to the aftermath of war—bows reverently in humble thanks for Liberty, Peace and Plenty.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

At St. John's Church.

Interest is centered today in the wedding of Miss Mary Lansing Warren of La Jolla and Lee Borden Milbank of this city, which is to be solemnized this afternoon at 5 o'clock in St. John's Church, with Dr. George Davidson officiating.

The church will be decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and palms and bamboo, with tall cathedral candles illuminating the altar.

Miss Warren is the daughter of Mrs. Lansing Warren of La Jolla and is a popular belle in the resort city, as well as in San Diego and Coronado. Mr. Milbank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Milbank, and is a nephew of Mrs. John Barnes Miller of Pasadena.

The bride is to go to the altar in a smart suit of brown duvetyn trimmed with Siberian squirrel. She will wear a chic little hat to match and will carry a bouquet of Irish Elegant roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Virginia Turner is maid of honor and is to wear brown velvet with hat to match. The other bridesmaids, Misses Althea Warren, sister of the bride-elect, and Helen Barry and Katheryn Burnand, are to wear brown velvet frocks with hats to match and their bouquets are to be of Irish Elegants, combined with flowers of different colors. Thatcher Kemp is to be best man and the ushers will be Lyman McFie, Lansing Warren, Jr., Lisgar Grier, Charles Thomas and John Mage. After the ceremony a small reception is to be held at the Warren home and upon the return of the couple from a trip, Mrs. Isaac Milbank will entertain for them.

For Wedding Party.

Miss Katherine Jardine of Pasadena and Andrew Post, Jr., of New York, whose marriage is scheduled for Saturday, were honor guests last evening at a dinner given by Miss Katherine Wigmore at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wigmore of West Adams street, Los Angeles. The company included the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. Wigmore and their daughters, Misses Marion and Katherine, will spend the Thanksgiving week-end on a motor trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Mudd.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Mudd are to entertain a company at a dinner-dance on Saturday evening at the Los Angeles Country Club. They are to have eighteen guests.

Mrs. Robinson.

Mrs. C. O. Robinson is to be hostess this afternoon at a tea for twenty-four guests at the Los Angeles Country Club. Saturday evening she will preside there at a dinner and dancing party for eighteen guests.

From Kansas City.

Important social lights from Kansas City soon to make Los Angeles their home are Mr. and Mrs. Porter Hovey. Mrs. Hovey is noted for her hospitality and her finesse in entertaining and therefore will be quite an acquisition to Los Angeles society.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Patton of Lake Vineyard, Oak Knoll, are to be hosts at a Thanksgiving dinner. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Bert Holladay, Miss Helen Holladay, Maj. Garlington, Dr. and Mrs. LeMoyne Wills, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Atwill, John Atwill and Miss Patton. Mrs. Patton is busy these days getting ready for the tea and sale over which she is to preside on Saturday, December 4, for the San Gabriel Episcopal Church.

NOT FINAL.

The Japanese papers announce that the new treaty with the United States has been completed and is acceptable to the Japanese government. That settles it—or rather doesn't settle it. What is acceptable to the Japanese government will never be acceptable to a group of California politicians.

AT THE DOOR.

The Denver and Rio Grande Railroad has passed into the hands of the Western Pacific under the terms of the receiver's sale. The Western Pacific is knocking at the doors of Los Angeles. Is it to be heard or denied? Another transcontinental route should be of wondrous importance to Los Angeles.

THE DEATH TOLL.

War is quite a dangerous game and its fatalities have been frightful; but, barring the scrap with Germany, there have been few wars in the world's history that present so great a toll of death and disability as comes through the development and use of the motor. Saul has slain his thousands and David his ten thousands, but wait till you get the full score on Henry.

GETTING TOGETHER.

Why not have a conference committee of one hundred representative citizens of the Ninth District for the purpose of hearing and sifting down the claims of Congressional candidates and then recommending one upon whom the voters of the district could conscientiously unite. Otherwise Randall is liable to butt in again and continue to misrepresent a district that is normally strongly Republican and overwhelmingly in favor of a protective tariff.

WILL NOT MIX.

Senator Borah says that Congress should pass a resolution declaring peace with Germany and that the United States should then begin trading with the world. But Congress—however confident of its own powers—cannot make either peace or trade by a roll call and a few words. Neither are the nations of the earth going to be chummy in their trading with a country that feels above associating with them in a League to perpetuate peace and reduce armaments. The nations may not quarrel with Uncle Sam, but he will have to go as heavily armed as if they were waiting for him at the back door. We cannot preserve a policy of isolation in diplomacy and expansion in commerce. They will not mix. It will cost more to keep out of the world than in it. Meanwhile we have lost our reputation for pioneering in the field of international amity.

SEX PLATFORMS.

One of our eloquent pulpiteers passionately exclaims: "God pity the home, the church, society and the nation if the women come down and stand on the low moral platform usually regarded as admissible for men." Maybe this is a knock on men, but it may be said that nothing can stop the women from either coming down or going up to any platform the men are trying to occupy. They may kick the platform to pieces—for the women are getting to be both high and hard kickers—but they are going to find that platform, though only a man or two can secure lodgment. If women cannot lift man up they will go down with him. It may be argued that the Nineteenth Amendment and modern conditions have made the women aloof and independent, but, after all, 100 women out of every ninety-nine have at some time in their lives prayed to the Lord to give them a man. Maybe they wanted to mount him in a glass case or maybe they only wanted to pick him to pieces, but the burden of their appeal was for a man. If they couldn't reach him by coaxing him up to their platform they might go down to his and lay violent hands on him. The most thoroughly intrenched woman-hater was never safe.

WITHIN THE GATES.

Beware of the enemy within the gates is advice as old as the world itself. Which means in modern parlance that home-made propaganda is more dangerous than foreign-made. A word to the wise is enough, and Uncle Sam is not deficient in worldly wisdom.

Thus, when the mouthpiece of the old Junker party in Prussia takes great pains to point out that a war between Japan and the United States would be waged chiefly for the benefit of Great Britain, while American statesmen recognize fully the innuendo behind the assertion, they are also willing to admit that there is more truth than poetry in the predicted result.

What, then, shall be said of Hearst, the arch-mischief-maker at home, who, through his mendacious press, is doing everything in his power to provoke a conflict that will be chiefly advantageous to the very power against whom he has always preached the bitterest animosity? At least one must infer that his hatred for England is not sufficient to deter him from attempting to damage his own country.

But, then, a propagandist who makes the sowing of discord and the harvesting of evil passions the one and only object of an embittered existence can never be said to belong to any civilized country. He may live within our American gates through the forbearance of a liberal nation; he will discover his real habitat after a divine providence has removed him from this sphere of earthly activity.

CHOOSING A CABINET.

Persistent rumor asserts that Senator Harding is following the example of Lincoln by seeking to get the ablest and best-trained intellects in the country to serve in his Cabinet; that he is not casting about for parts to build up a personal machine, but desires that every government department shall have at its head a man who has shown peculiar aptitude. He says that the men will serve the President best who serve their country best.

It is for this reason that the names of eminent Republicans, many of whom have but slight personal connection with the President-elect, are already associated with Cabinet positions. Senator Harding has never posed as a superman. He honestly seeks co-operation in building and putting into effect constructive policies for the country's good. He does not believe that a Cabinet meeting should consist of the Chief Executive and ten rubber stamps. When the Cabinet is assembled he will expect the members to be qualified to give him information, to assist in solving the many executive problems by which he will be confronted.

Lincoln often asserted that he owed what measure of success he had achieved as Chief Executive to the collective intellects of the Cabinet officials by whom he was surrounded. He did not pose as the master intellect of his generation and was not too proud to seek expert advice on all public questions. He won the public trust by choosing Cabinet officers who themselves possessed the public confidence. He never selected little men for big positions, never put a college president in a position that demanded practical training in industry.

President Wilson's Cabinet selections would lead one to believe that he considered only two classes of citizens capable of running government departments, college professors and newspaper publishers. Although Senator Harding is himself a publisher, it is significant to note that no brother publisher is being considered for a Cabinet position.

It is generally understood that Mr. Root can have the portfolio of Secretary of State if he will consent to accept. But Mr. Root has protested that his advanced age unfits him for the position. If he persists in his refusal the place may go to David Jayne Hill.

Former Senator Weeks of Massachusetts is said by those nearest the President-elect to be under consideration for Secretary of the Navy. Mr. Weeks is an Annapolis graduate and has always taken a great interest in navy affairs.

Herbert Hoover will probably have the refusal of the portfolio of the Interior. Senator Harding has expressed himself as believing that Mr. Hoover is better fitted than any other man in the country for that position. This selection would combine popularity with efficiency. The problems of the Interior Department nearly all have engineering features; and most of the work of the department is centered in the far West.

Gov. Lowden of Illinois can have the refusal of the Treasury portfolio. The notable success which he achieved in establishing a budget system for Illinois and making it a medium for a radical reduction in the cost of State government marks him as the right man to formulate a policy for reducing the present frightfully high cost of the Federal government.

Former Justice Hughes is the choice of Republican leaders for Attorney-General. He would come to the country as a welcome relief after Palmer, who blasted his reputation by compromising with the radical leaders of the miners' union. If Mr. Hughes would accept he would add tremendously to the strength of the new administration.

Gen. Wood will probably be asked to take a Cabinet portfolio, but not that of the Secretary of War. There is a growing demand that he be made Secretary of Labor. During the last two years he has served as mediator in labor disputes and has been selected by the administration to prevent violence in strikes. His excellent service has marked him as one eminently fitted for Secretary of Labor. This position is one that has heretofore been filled by a walking delegate and it is through this department that a number of radicals secured government positions. A courageous and efficient executive could make this position one of high importance to the country.

Intimation has come that a surprise awaits the country in the selection of a Secretary of War. Senator Harding is known to oppose placing an active army man in that position and he is reported to be considering A. T. Hert of Kentucky. Mr. Hert is the least known of the men suggested for the Cabinet, but he is an attorney of high standing, has served several terms on the Republican National Committee and is regarded by those who know him best as qualified for the position.

Mr. Taft deserves well of the new administration, but his name is not under consideration for a Cabinet position. While he was President he appointed Edward D. White of Louisiana, now Chief Justice of the United States, as Justice of the Supreme Court. It is now rumored that Chief Justice White is planning to retire and that President Harding will appoint Mr. Taft as his successor.

When one compares the names appearing in this list with the present holders of Cabinet portfolios it becomes apparent why the Republican party is regarded by the country as the party of achievement. Whether the President will be able always to avoid putting square pegs in round holes time alone can disclose. But the modesty and good sense he is showing in the men known to be under consideration give us good reason to hope that the season of experimentation has ended. The policies of the new administration will be formulated after they have been discussed by men of large caliber. They will not be drafted by the President in the secrecy of his private office and handed in typewritten form to the Cabinet officers when they assemble.

SPORTING LIFE.

The Superior Court in Arizona holds that under the gambling laws of that State a couple of men could shoot craps or play poker in the middle of a public highway with the Sheriff and judge as spectators, but it would be criminal to run a private cardroom where a "kitty" was fed or a percentage charged. The "banker" is the prime offender in the eye of the law. If people can play poker on the front perch or on the street corner this good old game is apt to be revived. There are still quite a number of sports in Phoenix and Tucson who remember how it is played.

The Battle of the Boomerangs.

THE NEW PAPACY.

The statement by keen observers that the Papacy is about to enter upon the most brilliant era since the height of its power in the thirteenth century calls attention to a striking development of the post-war period.

In England A. J. Balfour, mouthpiece of the agnostics and speaking for a power which has for centuries battled against Rome, has called on the Vatican to strengthen the League of Nations. In France, which for three centuries has been outwardly the arch enemy of clericalism, the Papacy is being used as an ally in Alsace-Lorraine, Central Europe and the Near East. In Italy the Catholic People's party, which is really the church in politics, holds the balance of power in Parliament and prevents the country from going frankly and completely over to radicalism. Throughout Europe the Vatican is today regarded as a mainstay against Bolshevism.

The Papacy, in short, has something which no other international factor can supply at this time. It has a tractable membership of some 300,000,000 people, a large part of them living in the regions about which there is the most concern at present. It emerged from the war strengthened in its organization and with its prestige undimmed. It was on both sides during the struggle and now has the hatred of neither. By discipline, teaching and administrative plan it is unalterably opposed to Bolshevism in all of its forms.

Since Bolshevism is more a collapse than a revolution, it is felt by statesmen that the most effective weapons against it are not guns, but food and teaching and strengthening of morale in the stricken lands. Because of this feeling Rome is sought by the Entente today and has actually started upon a course which will probably make her an outstanding temporal power once more.

Despite the growth of the Roman Catholic Church in this country from 12,000,000 members in 1912 to 16,000,000 in 1919 and despite many evidences of its hold upon the people, we have been slow to realize the unique position which it occupies internationally as a result of recent developments.

Benedict XV, with Cardinal Gasparri as his astute adviser, has adopted a policy which not only recognizes America more adequately than ever before in the church, but also frankly aims at regaining that temporal power which a series of disasters, culminating with the "imprisonment" of the Pope in 1871, swept away.

By a strange irony Germany and Italy, whose governments in the seventies did most to drag the Papacy in the dust, are now literally in the Pope's hands. The pressure which can be exerted for or against the present German government from the Vatican is tremendous and well understood in Berlin. As for Italy, the Pope not only has the situation well in hand by his members in Parliament, but actually has the power to call upon the Italian government at any time to pay a staggering sum which has been piling up and has been untouched since 1871, when the government voted an annual indemnity to the Vatican for the temporalities of which it stripped it. By simply demanding the payments already due, the Pope could force the Italian government to either invite revolution by repudiating its own obligation or to throw itself into bankruptcy by trying in this crisis to meet the payments.

As far east as Beirut, France recognizes and is dealing with the Papacy as a decisive factor in Asia Minor. Within the boundaries of France the anticlerical government and the Papacy have found common ground in their stand against Bolshevism, and the government has not been slow to go more than half way in a reconciliation with its old opponent. The Irish situation, as well as the general British eagerness to foster all stabilizing world influences, have brought the British government to a desire for a working understanding with Rome on a scale hitherto undreamed of.

Putting entirely aside all questions of doctrine or of worship, the Papacy, regarded solely as a political factor, has had a sudden and unexpected birth of power. As has happened so many times before in the history of Europe, this ancient and powerful organization, which seems forever being crushed utterly and forever rising stronger than before, has started on a new path to influence.

STRENUOUS SILLINESS.

Is the public really feeble-minded or do the vaudeville people merely think we are?

Are we pleasurably entertained and exhilaratingly amused by the perennial piffle that comprises the average vaudeville program—the cheap, silly and violently energetic patter of the low comedians, their dreary, old, overworked jokes, their imbecile antics, their inane grins, their pitiful little skips and jumps, their baggy clothes and battered hats? Do we really admire the drearily vivacious young woman who comes on in light costume and heavy smiles, with a giddy little run, and sings to us in a raucous voice about nothing in particular? Are we really intrigued with the dreary round of impersonators, barnyard and noise imitators, intelligent animals, freak musicians, jugglers and acrobats—are we? Is it possible that we can still get a thrill out of a row of silly little baby dolls jerking up and down in sillier dances and squeaking out still sillier songs, accompanied by a talkative young man of would-be doggy propensities and exuding professional winks and smiles upon the audience?

Vaudeville is still where it was several generations back, except for the introduction of the one-act farce or an occasional turn fondly regarded as highbrow by the perpetrators.

Is this giving the public what it wants? It would seem so. Why should the professionals exert themselves to be original and sparkling, distinctive and intelligent, when a mere brushing up of the mother-in-law joke, the twins joke, the matrimonial joke and the deceitful-husband joke can be trusted to raise a delighted giggle in the audience? Why bother to find piquant new songs with piquant new refrains, when the hoary old themes in music and verse still suffice? Why bother to be clever when dull and easy vulgarity gets by so well? True, the acrobats do strive to learn new and daring stunts, bless 'em, and the intelligent animals certainly contribute at least an effort towards intelligence to the utmost of their ability.

When one considers how the world has progressed in almost every other department, when one considers that compulsory education has been in vogue for at least three generations, when one appreciates the general raising of standards of intelligence and the wider scope of varied interests that exist it is rather amazing that the moldy, old, low comedian and all the rest of the imbecilities should have so firm a place in public popularity. Almost anyone of us could perform the silly tricks and gabble the silly patter that we pay to see and hear, but we should scorn to be found at it. Yet we can still be persuaded to take a journey and buy a seat to look and listen through dreary rounds of it. All the same, we seize so eagerly upon a turn that does surprise us by being different we can't be wholly submerged in fatuity.

One must observe with hope and fervor the fact that a leading London vaudeville producer has been quoted as admitting "that the public is tired of the old-fashioned low comedian" and that it is his intention to recruit more members of the legitimate drama for his shows henceforth. "Vaudeville needs an injection of originality," declares this frank person, "otherwise we shall be totally submerged by the cinemas."

"CLASSES" IN AMERICA.

When anyone talks to you about classes, tell him that we have but two classes in this country—the American and the un-American. The American knows the strength of his country, and its faults he is willing to correct by majority rule. The un-American has been taught to hate all government and would settle public problems by "direct action," a polite term for plunder and murder.

The trouble with such classes as the poor and the rich is that they do not stay classed. The office boy of today is the merchant prince of tomorrow; a farm boy became President of the United States; the head of the largest bank in New York was a newspaper reporter a few years ago; the Governor of the most populous State once sold newspapers in a fish market. There are thousands of such examples. The heads of colleges, railroads, factories and other great institutions practically all rose from poverty.

There is but one class in this land to which decent people belong—the American class.—[Farmer and Breeder.

THE MERRY-GO-ROUND.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

A friend of mine is to be awarded one of those eight-ounce Carnegie medals. This dare-devil has a record of having made 365 round trips on the municipal merry-go-round in a single year.

The merry-go-round is the common or garbage name for the Angeleno Heights and Crown Hill street car line. Since this tangled skein of steel has been equipped with those death-defying, one-man cars every trip has become an adventure.

The Angeleno wives have returned to the old-fashioned habit of kissing their husbands good-by when they part with them of a morning. Father is going to intrust his being to the hardships of a one-man car. The family may never see him again. So the wife sees him go away with a tear and the boy points at father as the bravest man on the block. Preparedness consists in carrying all the life and accident insurance that can be had. The collect of the day reads: "From perils of cliff and crag and of the vasty deep good Lord deliver us."

A trip from Crown Hill to Angeleno Heights and back again on one of these hermetically-sealed, one-man cars is a symposium of about all the sports and hazards of humanity. You have your mountain climbing, your ski jumping, your coasting and a suggestion of deep-sea fishing. People who have ridden camels in Egypt or broken broncbos in Montana rather like it. It is a reminder of the Ferris wheel and the chute-the-chutes. It is the finest sort of a training for a man who is ambitious to become a whirling dervish. The car spins around corners till you get dizzy and you climb heights that dwarf the Alps. The human fly could have more fun in an afternoon on one of these cars than he could in a week on the Woolworth Building.

Crown Hill and Angeleno Heights are two of the loftiest peaks of downtown Los Angeles. They are connected up by this one-man car line, the map of which resembles the web of a trained spider. The route covers twenty-eight different streets and it winds and turns so quickly that the street-car man has to be crooked to live up to it. After spinning over the line the first time a passenger who reaches the top of one hill is sure that the car could easily make the jump across to the other without wasting that four miles of winding steel.

The Crown Hillers who adventure on the line all acquire the rolling gate of the seafaring man. I once made a trip to Angeleno Heights when the car was belated and I spent most of the time sitting on the laps of women to whom I had never been introduced. Just as one fat blonde would be getting used to me another jolt of the car would take me over to the skinny milliner in the corner. Before I could fairly explain matters to her my arms would be wrapped around the neck of the pilot and I would be begging him to take me to the nearest bootlegger that I might end it all.

When a car is crowded its resemblance to a box of sardines is so striking as to be almost human. Just a little dash of oil and mustard would settle the business.

Unless you happen to have the pilot's eye it is impossible to gain admission to one of these pepper-box cars without using a can opener and the Crown Hillers all accustom themselves to carrying this convenient tool. Some of them have it dangling around their necks by a ribbon so that it will be handy should their hands be incumbered with packages.

The Crown Hillers have a national anthem of their own to take the place of the Eighteenth Amendment. The chorus is: "We're rolling, reeling home," and it is repeated eighty-five times or until the chauffeur kicks goal.

This chauffeur is also pilot, conductor, receiving teller, baggage-master, switchman, engineer, gate-keeper, dispatcher, night watchman, cashier and chief of the information bureau. Every morning the company intrusts him with one of its valuable cars, kisses him good-by and murmurs: "God bless you." If he brings back the car at night without all the paint being scratched off the hurricane deck the company pays him $40 a week.

Running one of these cars is what is called an executive position and would be fine training for Herbert Hoover. The incumbent hasn't much time for badinage or repartee. That is why he so seldom has a come-back when a passenger calls his car a mouse-trap. It would be a poor job for a blind cripple or a one-armed deaf mute. He has to be watching out for plugged nickels while he is waving back a fat man who insists on smoking a cigar on the front pew. He makes change with one hand while he is operating the brake, the controller and the door with the other. He issues transfers with his teeth, and if he chances to spit on the track he has to put skid chains on his car wheels to keep from being dashed to death on the rocks below.

Spinning around the corners and scooting up and down hills with one of these trolley tarantulas is said to be a fine thing for torpid liver, but it is bad for a weak heart.

There are some of the curves so abrupt that a man sitting on the front seat can look through the back of the car and see whether his neck is shaved or not. When you make all the twists with one of these one-lunged road rabbits you are getting all the violent exercise that the doctor could ever prescribe.

Whenever I am in a desperate mood or seek hazardous adventure I buy me a trip on the spinway. One gets an idea of what it is to glide to the bottomless pit in a zinc-lined casket.

Not so much of a glide, either, as a bump-the-bumps.

SWEETPEAS.

All flowers in my garden
Are free
Except the wayward sweetpeas;
And they,
Out of love and gratitude,
Have forged tiny green chains,
And chained themselves
To my lattice
And to my heart.

HEALTH RULE OF SCHOOLS ATTACKED

Child Who was Ill Demands Right to Return to Class Without Examination.

A petition for a writ of mandate returnable before Judge Shenk Monday afternoon, opens up the question whether a public school pupil can be excluded from school after an illness if the demand to submit to a physical examination is refused.

The suit was brought against the Board of Education by Mary A. Edmonds through her mother, Mabelle A. Edmonds. The attorney is Douglas Edmonds, who is not a relative of the plaintiff.

Mary went to the Normandie-avenue school. She was absent five days and it is asserted she was refused the right to return to school without being examined. The writ is designed to compel the authorities to admit her to the school without an examination.

KILL PROPOSAL FOR NEW STREET

Pasadena Officials Veto Cross-Town Thoroughfare.

'Australian Sees No Good in Prohibition Laws.

Residence District would Join Pasadena School.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Nov. 23.—The proposal to widen and lengthen Walnut street into a complete cross-town thoroughfare was voted down in the City Commission meeting today. Opposition by taxpayers led to the defeat of the plan.

This is the second attempt to open up a new cross-town highway to parallel the over-crowded Colorado street that has been defeated this year. The other was the Green-street proposition, which the Commission withdrew after taxpayers and property owners had vigorously fought it.

NO PROHIBITION WANTED.

Australia does not want prohibition and is not likely to follow the example of the United States by adopting a "dry" law, says D. S. Donkin, a prominent young Australian who is visiting here. "About the only result of prohibition I have observed in the United States," he said, "is that people are drinking terrible home-brew mixtures and that a number are going dead or blind from drinking wood alcohol."

Mr. Donkin said that in his belief the successor to the Hughes labor government in Australia when elected, will give more representation to the farming and stock-raising population in an effort to encourage greater interior development in the commonwealth.

MAY ANNEX TO DISTRICT.

A delegation from Flintridge and La Canada conferred today with eluded before Thanksgiving Day of Education about possible annexation to the Pasadena High School district. Local school officials assured the visitors that Pasadena High School would be glad to have them affiliate with the district. If the elementary school board and a majority of the householders of the La Canada and Flintridge region desire to be made a part of the local high school district it is possible for the county superintendent and the county supervisors to devise it.

CHARGE BARBER WITH MISUSING THE MAIL.

ARREST LONG BEACH MAN FOR PROMOTING WILDCAT LAND DEAL.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, Nov. 23.—Frank D. Wells, 32 years old, was arrested here this afternoon on a charge of using the United States mails to defraud.

He was taken into custody by Deputy United States Marshal A. H. Blakely and lodged in the Long Beach City Jail. Wells is charged with having secured $100,000 in a Texas land deal. According to Marshal Blakely, Wells, with his three brothers, perfected and carried out a land fraud in Northern Texas, and then escaped to this city, where he was operating the United States Barber Shop at 105 East Ocean.

A warrant for his arrest was issued by the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Texas on October 11. He is held without bail.

Wells was taken into custody by Marshal Blakely at the postoffice. He had entered the building to secure his mail, which he received from a lock box. Blakely, watching the box, identified his prisoner.

MAYOR FAILS TO APPROVE OF PLAN.

RIVERSIDE EXECUTIVE CONTENDS ACTION WOULD NOT BRING DESIRED RESULT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 23.—Holding that the resolution authorizing him to enter into a contract for the purchase of additional land for the public library would not accomplish what was intended, Mayor Porter today returned the document to the City Council unsigned.

The proposed agreement is required to secure a gift of $25,000 from the Carnegie Corporation and $5000 from the citizens, as they are contingent on the purchase of the land needed for library extensions.

Mayor Porter bases his contention on the understanding that when an 18-cent levy was made for the library fund it was designed to provide for the payment of the purchase price from that fund instead of the general fund, and directs attention to the fact that the Council has no assurances that the Carnegie gift will be made available immediately. His suggestion that steps be taken to provide for the purchase of the property directly by the library board was supported by the Council.

However, as the resolution did not receive the Mayor's veto, it remains in force until rescinded by the Council, which, by adjoining for one week, placed a barrier against a possible veto.

HOLD LOCAL MAN ON MURDER CHARGE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 23.—Leo Phariss, employed as a motorman by the Los Angeles Railway Company on Division No. 1, is held here for the Monterey authorities, charged with the murder of Bill Abernathy, an Indian of Indian Valley, that county.

Phariss was on his way to Los Angeles to spend Thanksgiving when taken from a train on telegraphic instructions from the north. He states he has an apple ranch in Stone Canyon, and that Abernathy owned a ranch adjoining.

Tuesday of last week Abernathy, who, the prisoner says has long been "bulldozing" the locality, came upon the Phariss ranch and threatened to kill Phariss. The latter pacified him, but next day he came again, this time brandishing a revolver and Phariss shot him. He died a few minutes later. Phariss surrendered to the officers and a Coroner's jury exonerated him.

"I don't know why I have been arrested again," he said today.

ATTEMPT TO END LIFE.

Sixteen - year - old Daisy Bly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bly of Minneapolis, Minn., who came here two months ago to spend the winter, is at a local hospital shot through the body as a result of an attempt to end her own life. She was despondent because the family had come so far away from home.

Scribbling a note saying, "Good-by all, I am going to commit suicide," she loaded her father's rifle and attempted to fire a bullet into her heart. The bullet glanced on two ribs, breaking them, but passed through the body and was buried in the wall of the room without touching a vital organ. It is believed she will recover.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 23.—Sixty cars of oranges for the holiday trade is the estimate local fruit men place on the fruit that will be ready for early shipment from this district this season. The estimate is the aggregate of the figures made by the five citrus associations in the field. The fruit is said to be coloring well and to test high for sugar content for this time of year. Some of the tests are as high as 8.5 to 10.

STRAY BULLET WOUNDS SANTA MONICA BOY.

The lad had been tramping through the hills with other boys, gathering holly. They had stopped at the reservoir to eat. Suddenly a shot rang out and De Camp fell. DEATH ENDS OLD FAMILY GENERATION

Last Survivor of 'Original Newmark Pioneers Succumbs; Here Sixty-six Years

The death early yesterday morning of Mrs. Solomon Lazard marked the passing of the last surviving member of the original Newmark family which came to Los Angeles in 1854. Mrs. Lazard was the third daughter of Joseph Newmark, the pioneer. She was born in St. Louis in 1845, and came to California with her parents nine years later.

The family left New York on Dec. 15, 1852, on the ship Carrington and arrived in San Francisco after a trip of four months and five days. They sailed around the Horn.

Mrs. Lazard died from a complication of diseases incident to her advanced age. She leaves two sons, Sylvan A. Lazard and Dr. E. M. Lazard, and two daughters, Mrs. Louis Lewin and Mrs. A. Jacoby. The funeral services, which will be private, will be held today at the Lazard residence, 665 South Westlake avenue.

On July 5, 1866, the then Caroline Newmark was married to Solomon Lazard. The bride's father performed the ceremony at the residence of M. Kremer on Main street. The same evening a ball and dinner at the old Bella Union Hotel celebrated the event. While the dinner was in progress a fight started in the lobby of the hotel between Robert Carlisle and A. J. King, then undersheriff. The following day Carlisle and two brothers of the undersheriff engaged in a duel and all three were killed.

Phone Magnate from Nebraska Dies at Beach.

Casper E. Yost of Omaha, 79 years of age, who died at Long Beach Monday night, was chairman of the board of directors of the Nebraska Telephone Company, former president of that corporation, and one of the most widely known telephone men in the United States.

Mr. Yost, who arrived at Long Beach a week ago accompanied by a nurse, Miss Emma Peterson, was in poor health before leaving Omaha, and was forced to break his journey and rest at Salt Lake City. He leaves only one relative, a daughter, Mrs. Charles Osmutt of Omaha, who started for Los Angeles yesterday and will make funeral arrangements after her arrival here. Mr. Yost's died at Long Beach about a year ago and his health began to fail at that time.

In 1865 President Lincoln appointed Mr. Yost Marshal of the Territory of Nebraska, to which he had gone about a year before from his native State, New York. At one time Mr. Yost was part owner of the Omaha Daily Republican.

(Morosco) Mitchell, in separate maintenance proceedings against Oliver (Morosco) Mitchell. Mr. Cohen states in his complaint that he has received only $627 on account of his professional services. These included filing the suit and a property adjustment. The separate maintenance suit has not yet come to trial.

DEMAND QUIETUS PUT ON PUBLICITY LIES.

ELIMINATION OF FAKE "ADS" URGED BY CLOTHIERS IN CONVENTION HERE.

Resolutions recommending that retail clothiers eliminate sensational, spectacular and misleading advertisements; indorsing the action of retailers who have reduced the price of their goods, and urging them to dispose of their fall stocks before buying more, were adopted by the Retail Clothiers' Association yesterday at its convention here.

The association believes the present unsettled and confused condition of the clothing market can be helped if all dealers will eliminate "fake" advertising. The resolution deprecates the "undignified advertising methods of some of the stores," which it declares "tends to lower the standard of the clothing industry."

Officers of the association believe that prices will go still lower but doubt if pre-war scales will ever exist again. They expressed the opinion that the public does not desire a return to pre-war conditions.

CHARGES CAFES ADD TO PRICES.

Portions Also Shrinking, Says Protest Letter to Council, Received Yesterday.

Restaurants and cafeterias in Los Angeles are not only increasing their prices, but also are diminishing the portions they serve to patrons, says H. Holt in a letter to the City Council, which was received yesterday by the City Clerk.

Mr. Holt's letter declares that a campaign has been begun here to induce downtown workers to bring their lunches with them from their homes, and that if this does not force a price reduction 1000 young women will parade the streets some day and distribute handbills setting forth the profits which cafe owners are supposed to be netting.

NIECE LOSES IN BETRAYAL DAMAGE SUIT

Case Ends When Attorneys for Rich Uncle Insist She Was Not Unsophisticated.

Mrs. Barbara Staalduynen's $100,000 damage suit against her rich uncle, Peter P. Hovley, banker and Imperial Valley rancher, whom she charged with having betrayed her when she accompanied him from Chicago to this State, was dismissed yesterday in Judge Monroe's court on motion of the defense.

The declaration that she was unsophisticated at the time of the trip to the West was made in Mrs. Staalduynen's complaint, but Mr. Hovley's attorneys, Woodruff and Shoemaker, stated in court yesterday that they were prepared to show by means of depositions taken in the East that she was quite sophisticated before she started on the journey to California. Clark and Law, who represented the plaintiff, declared that they had no means to obtain evidence refuting the charges against their client's character, and moved unsuccessfully for a continpance of the trial.

There was no offer of evidence on the part of the plaintiff, and Mrs. Staalduynen did not appear in court where proceedings were taken without a jury.

Foul Play Idea is Exploded by Coroner's Quiz.

Frank L. Thacker, gunsmith, who died at his home, 1714 Eagle street, on the 10th inst., came to his death from natural causes and not as a result of foul play, according to a report made to Coroner Williams yesterday afternoon by Dr. A. F. Wagner, who conducted the autopsy.

The remains, which, because of objections made by relatives just before the time set for cremation, were held at the Vesper undertaking rooms, 1930 East First street, will probably be cremated within the next two days.

WINS RECOUNT FIGHT.

Montebello Man Elected Trustee by Small Margin on New Tally.

W. D. Stephens, who contested the election of Frank H. Olds as Trustee of the newly incorporated sixth-class city of Montebello, was declared elected by Judge Wood yesterday, after a recount of the votes cast at the recent election.

The original vote was: Stephens, 240; Olds, 243. The recount showed that the vote was: Stephens, 359; Olds, 252.

The court found that the election officers had failed to count ballots upon which the names of Stephens or Olds were misspelled. Under the law, however, these ballots have to be counted.

says she heard Mrs. Ros say, "The ——— dog of a ———," in referring to Graydon after he was shot.

Questioned by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Van Cott, Mr. and Mrs. John Scaldino, who have a tailor shop near the bungalow, told of Doane calling the Sheriff's office, and later the noise of the fight. The husband called the police on hearing shooting.

Other witnesses were W. A. Loomis, Venice Chief of Police, who told of finding a rusty file, which the defense has tried to prove was held by Mrs. Graydon, and Deputy Sheriff Conly told of serving a writ of possession on favor of the Graydons. It was learned after the writ was served that a stay of execution of judgment in the case had been issued. The writ would not have been served had this been known. The case will be resumed today.

LAW MAY MAKE JUDGE SERVE WITHOUT PAY.

CRAIL IN CURIOUS POSITION FOR MONTH BECAUSE OF LEGAL TANGLE.

By a peculiar circumstance growing out of the recent election, a situation has arisen which may mean that Judge Crail, after December 1, will sit in the Superior Court as a de facto Judge without pay. Under the constitutional provision covering the election of Superior Court judges, Judge Crail must relinquish his seat on the bench to Judge-elect Summerfield immediately when the latter qualifies for the office, which will be as soon as he receives his commission from Gov. Stephens and his election is certified by the Secretary of State. This will be about December 1.

In the interim between December 1 and January 2, when the newly-elected Superior judges qualify, Judge Crail, because he was appointed to the bench to fill an unexpired term which ended with the general election on the 2nd inst., must step aside for Judge Summerfield. Had Judge Crail been holding his seat by virtue of an election, he would hold over automatically, as will the other judges, until January 2. He will have the option, however, of occupying the bench until he qualifies for his new elective term as a de facto judge, but under ruling of the Supreme Court, covering similar cases, Judge Summerfield will be entitled to the month's pay.

This situation was the subject yesterday of considerable discussion among the Superior judges, and they expect to hold a meeting in Judge Works's chambers at the Courthouse tonight to go over the matter with a view to bridging it over in Judge Crail's interest.

Judges Craig and Works will qualify for the Court of Appeal on January 2, as will Presiding Justice Finlayson. Under the law, they will draw lots for four, six and twelve-year terms. As soon as this drawing is made, they will be certified by the Secretary of State for the respective terms in accordance with the drawing.

EYE WORTH THOUSANDS.

Woman Given Cash Award for Injury Received in Smash-up.

A woman's eye is worth $5000, according to a decision given yesterday by Judge Craig in favor of Mrs. Laura McFate, who sued the Los Angeles Ambulance Company for $25,000 for injuries received in an accident on October 19, which resulted in the removal of one eye.

The automobile in which Mr. and Mrs. McFate were riding, the evidence showed, was hit by an ambulance owned by the defendant company, and splintering windshield glass injured the plaintiff.

Mr. McFate was also awarded a verdict of $565 for hospital, doctor and attorney fees.

BIGGEST THING OF THE KIND EVER SEEN H

Entire Trainload of Tanlac Sold in California, Oregon and Washington in Only Few Months' Time.

LOCAL DEALERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

Celebrated Medicine Now Selling at Phenomenal Rate of 7,500,000 Bottles Per Year. — All Records Broken.

"The fact that twenty carloads or an entire trainload of Tanlac has been sold in the states of California, Oregon and Washington within the short period of ninety days is a big business item that will attract attention throughout the entire Pacific Coast, for nothing like it has ever happened before. It breaks all records."

Mr. A. C. Cole, special Tanlac representative, made this remarkable announcement when seen in the Owl Drug store yesterday and imparted the additional information that the preparation was now selling at the phenomenal rate of approximately 7,500,000 bottles a year.

"If the present rate continues," said Mr. Cole, "the Pacific Coast alone will require considerably over 2,000,000 bottles a year. This is a tremendous figure, but I am really conservative in making this statement. These enormous sales mean but one thing and that is merit.

"Tanlac has been well advertised, it is true, but such a large and rapidly growing demand could not be brought about by advertising alone. It is what the people themselves say that counts. One bottle of Tanlac is sold in a neighborhood through advertising, but ten more are sold in that same community as a result of the sale of that first bottle and that is why Tanlac has succeeded. People are always willing to talk about their ailments, but they are more than glad to tell others of the medicine that helped them. If is something they could not keep to themselves if they tried, for the impulse to sympathize with your fellowman and want to help him is one of the strongest, as well as one of the biggest, things in human nature.

"As I have just stated, the enormous demand for Tanlac is due to merit alone for, although Tanlac is extensively advertised, no amount of advertising would continue to sell any article that does not possess real merit. Unless full value underlays the article advertised, the advertising will ultimately fall of its own weight. 'You can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time.'

"This applies to every line of business, and the modern business man or firm can only succeed through honest advertising and fair dealing. When the manufacturers of Tanlac placed it on the market, something over five years ago, they did so with the firm conviction that they were offering to the people the best and purest product of its kind on the American market. They did not hesitate, therefore, to expend vast sums for advertising because of their absolute confidence in their product.

"Tanlac has never been advertised as a cure-all or that it would perform unheard wonders. The advertising has been clean, straightforward and conservative. Actual facts and figures have been stated and nothing but true, business-like way that has commanded the confidence of all conservative claims set forth.

"When I came to Los Angeles to superintend the sale of Tanlac in your city, I stated publicly that the success of the medicine would be as great in this city as elsewhere. I offered Tanlac upon its merits, being full well that it would prove satisfactory if properly introduced. The success the preparation has met with here has amply proven that confidence was well placed. The large percentage of your best people now using the preparation are daily testifying to its merits and powers as a medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles by Pasadena and San Diego Owl Drug Stores. A personal representative is at their Broadway store every day.—[Advertisement.

REFEREE WILL HAVE WHISTLE.

This Point Cleared Up at Grid Chiefs' Meeting.

This Will Represent East New Year's Day Unknown.

Stanford Refuses to Come, but May Change Mind.

The following very important facts in connection with the New Year's football game at Pasadena were [illegible] last night following a meeting of the Tournament of Roses committee:

Stanford will represent the East.

Stanford will not be asked to go to Pasadena.

The State will be invited to play.

The State will not be sent an invitation.

Stanford may yet be persuaded to come West.

The Pacific Coast team has not yet been selected.

As nearly as could be ascertained after hour last night it has been definitely decided to play an intersectional football game at Pasadena on New Year's Day. Beyond that fact there was certain, but it was believed that there would be eleven men on each team regardless of who they invited and that the referee would be provided with a whistle.

The meeting resulted in a wild mass of announcements and apparently the committee changed its mind with great frequency. Every time a subject there would be an announcement that somebody had been chosen to represent the East but as the editor had looked over the dope on the candidate and found that the committee had made a wonderful choice, the committee would call up and in a hoarse voice announce that it was all a mistake and they had decided to try Princeton again.

OREGONS OIL THEIR JOINTS.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

Without Bill Steers, captain, halfback and the big noise in the backfield, Oregon's football team arrived yesterday morning for the Thanksgiving Day clash with Gloomy Henderson's U.S.C. eleven.

In the afternoon Bill Hayward, the sempiternal trainer of the lemon-yellow outfit, toted his flock out to Tournament Park, where they went through a brisk workout on the lawn.

CAME QUICK.

Hayward got his men down here about twelve hours sooner than any one expected, and obtained on extra day's workout thereby. The team left Portland on Sunday afternoon, and changed cars at Sacramento, which accounts for the speed.

The grizzled trainer said Pete Meade will take Steer's place in the backfield. Meade is 22, weighs 165 and is 5ft. 9in. tall and is said to have showed a lot of stuff in the game with Idaho, won by Oregon, 13 to 7.

IS NOT STEERS.

Of course, Meade is not Steers, and Oregon is the loser thereby. Steers's aged father is seriously injured, according to Hayward, and the blonde-haired captain of the Northwestern team felt his duty was to stay home.

Hayward said some of the men came out of the contest with the Oregon Aggies considerably bruised up, and that some of them sustained lime burns from the lime which was used to mark the field.

CAP. LESLIE.

"Spike" Leslie, the left tackle and one of the veterans who played against Harvard last New Year's Day, will act as captain in the absence of Steers.

The other vets on the Oregon eleven who went through that bitter and bruising battle with Harvard are "Brick" Leslie, center; Carl Mautz, right guard, and Mart Howard, left end.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Most of the "moral victories" for 1920 are in. There are just a few scattering returns still out.

Either U.S.C. or Oregon will achieve a "moral victory" tomorrow, while either the East or the West will start the new year with one at Pasadena on January 1.

The fall crop of "moral victories" on the gridiron has been unusually large, with Pennsylvania and U.C. S.B. believed to be leading by a safe margin.

Stanford's "moral victory" over California will go down in the records as one of the most sensational triumphs of its kind ever witnessed.

Illinois registered a "moral victory" over Ohio, but by such a low score as to make it seem almost immoral.

True, California and Ohio scored all the points, but this is small satisfaction to them in this new and higher era of football in which mind is superior to mere matter and the soul goes marching on, as was said to have happened in the case of John Brown.

Harvard and Princeton by playing a tie produced one of the few double-barreled "moral victories" seen this year.

Football has emerged from that brutal period in which a team when walloped was merely regarded as having "got it in the neck."

Baseball will remain as before, because of the refusal of the sports to pay off on "moral victories."

Removal of the baseball park to Main street has been unavoidably delayed until December 1, and thus the wild animals are given a reprieve. Considerable wrecking will be necessary in the process of the transfer, and inability to get anybody to pull out the first nail is causing some delay. Not only is labor scarce, but it is very finicky at times. Bids were asked on pulling the first nail, but no answers were received. One guy did say that he would like to draw up plans and specifications on pulling the first nail, but couldn't give an estimate inside of a week. He is not sure whether the nail should be pulled out, or blasted out, and naturally, before undertaking a contract of this mag-

TWELVE GO-FAST HOUNDS TUNED FOR MOTOR DASH.

Everybody but Ralph De Palma Edged Up for Thanksgiving Day Jaunt at the Beverly Hills Speedway.

A hoodoo that worked both ways cropped up yesterday in connection with the 250-mile Thanksgiving Day championship speedway race, which takes place tomorrow. The hoodoo number of thirteen entries has been cut to twelve, but the sad part of the story is found in the fact that the missing driver is to be Ralph De Palma, undoubtedly one of the real favorites for the championship.

OUT OF IT.

A wire received from De Palma yesterday by the Speedway Association read as follows: "My car on steamer Savoie arriving today (Monday.) Cannot ship to Los Angeles until Tuesday. Therefore cannot be with you Thanksgiving Day. If you contemplate another event will be ready to race any time after December 1. Ralph De Palma." Further word to his mechanicians said that through a mistake in shipping orders on the other side his new Ballot missed the steamer on which it was supposed to come across the pond, otherwise it would have arrived almost a week ago.

De Palma's absence will not be noticed tomorrow if the rest of the drivers have anything to say about it. The way they tore around the big hoop yesterday was enough to scare anybody half to death. Just about every pilot entered in the race with the exception of Gaston Chevrolet and Roscoe Sarles was out yesterday and there were some very spirited brushes on the fast bowl with Joe Thomas getting away with the fleece lined spittoon by means of a 103-mile an hour lap, which put all competition in the shade.

HARD LUCK.

Tommy Milton was out with his little gofast Chevrolet Special and was just getting ready to dropkick all previous records for a goal when he burned out a bearing in the rear end of the car and was forced to spend the rest of the afternoon wrestling with bolts, nuts, bearings, oil, grease and other paraphernalia. Just before sundown the car was once more all in one piece and apparently just as good as new.

An enormous gathering of high-powered spectators was present, most of them frozen half to death before the practice was over. J. M. Danziger and Al Faulkner of the Speedway board of directors, Barney Oldfield and Eddie Pullen, graduates of the University of Speed, Starter Fred Wagner, Honorary Referees Stan Mitchell and Charley Root, George Hill, the carburetor king, Ernest Longchamps of the Delco, just back from a trip to France, and too many other famous birds to mention.

LUNG TROUBLE.

Eddie Rickenbacker would have broken the record from Oakland to Los Angeles in an Americanized Fokker scout plane yesterday except for the fact that his engine developed lung trouble or asthma or something while warming it up yesterday morning and Rick decided to postpone the record attempt until today. He expects to arrive at De Mille Field before 1 o'clock today.

Nine Army airplanes from March Field will fly over the Los Angeles business section at noon today, bound for the Hollywood Speedway, where they will be parked in the center of the track tomorrow during the automobile races. Today's flight and tomorrow's exhibition will be made in the interests of air service recruiting. Maj. C. L. Tinker will be in charge of the air flight today, and Lieut. Pitts will be in charge of the exhibition of airplane motors tomorrow at the Speedway field.

OHRT TO RACE ABROAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Hans Ohrt, San Francisco bicycle racer, who returned from Europe a few days ago, will sail from here tomorrow to enter the season's racing circuits in Australia.

WIND-UP GAMES ON FOR TODAY.

Hot Battles Scheduled for City League Title.

Poly Lads Appear to Have the Best Chance.

Three Are in a Tie for Football Supremacy.

Team—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Los Angeles	4	1	.800
Manual Arts	4	1	.800
Polytechnic	4	1	.800
Hollywood	3	2	.600
Pasadena	2	3	.400
Lincoln	1	4	.200
Jefferson	0	5	.000

GAMES TODAY.

Poly vs. L. A. High, at Washington Park.
Manual vs. Hollywood, at Manual.
Lincoln vs. Jefferson, at Lincoln.

With three teams all tied up in a knot for the leadership in the City League football standings and the right to participate in the play-off for the Southern California championship the wind-up games will be played today.

This brings L. A. High and Poly together on the Washington Park grass plot, Manual Arts and Hollywood at Wilson Field and Lincoln and Jefferson on the former's field.

IS NO WAY.

At first sight there appears to be no way in which any of the three leaders can acquire a clear claim to the title and thereby get into the playoff series.

But, according to an announcement by Principal Oliver of L. A. High last week this mystery has been solved in a way that would do credit to any amateur Sherlock Holmes. Here is the way the vice-principals, who compose the board of arbitration, have worked it out:

GOES TO POLY.

If Poly defeats Los Angeles the Mechanics will be awarded the championship of the City League regardless of the outcome of the Manual-Hollywood game because Poly has beaten Manual and Hollywood is out of the lists as a championship contender.

Los Angeles can win the title provided the Pioneers defeat Poly and Hollywood downs manual.

The plum will go to Manual if the Artisans bump Hollywood and L. A. High scrambles Poly, for Manual has rapped the Pioneers.

It will thus be seen that Poly stands the best chance of copping the gravy. Any sort of a win over Los Angeles brings the bacon home to the Mechanics.

The Pioneers will probably start today's game minus the services of their gritty little quarterback, Guy Dennis, who suffered a dislocated shoulder in the fracas with Manual Arts. McRae will take his place. To counter-balance the loss of Dennis, Coach Whittle will have Armstrong in at left half in place of Phillips.

Coach Voyle Brennan reports that his team is not altogether intact. Houck, the big tackle, having been unable to scrimmage since the combat with Hollywood and Halfback Day, Maurice having been under the weather.

GRUDGE FIGHT.

The annual grudge fight between Hollywood and Manual will be doubly bitter this year. Last fall Hollywood kept Manual out of the play-off series by tieing the Artisans, and the latter are after a sweet revenge this year.

Coach Fred Johnson of Hollywood has a different line-up than the one with which he started the season. Priaulx, a tackle, is playing quarterback, and is said to be one of the best in the City League.

The game between Lincoln and Jefferson will decide the cellar championship. The line-up:

JOE JACKSON SAYS HE DID NOT CONFESS.

GREENVILLE (S. C.) Nov. 23.—Joe Jackson, indicted Chicago American outfielder, in a statement issued here today, declared: "I never have confessed to throwing a ball game in my life, and I never will."

Jackson announced he had retained counsel to defend him at his trial in Chicago next January on the indictment growing out of the 1919 world series baseball scandal.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 23.—Final drills in a new set of signals are being given to the University of Pittsburg football team for the game against Penn State, Thanksgiving Day.

GAMBLERS MUST BE BARRED OUT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—William H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, and Charles H. Strub, owner of the San Francisco club, who are on a short tour in the East, declared here today that the only way to clean up baseball is to go after the gamblers. They urged the barring of all known professional gamblers from the parks of organized baseball.

JUDGE LANDIS GOES TO WORK.

Baseball Boss Tackles White Sox Prize Money.

Comiskey Out to Buy the Best Players in Sight.

Few Chirps from the Holdouts This Season.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Judge K. M. Landis, supreme head of baseball, will take up this week active work in his new position and probably the first case he will settle will be the case of the White Sox prize money for the 1920 world series. Records of the old National Baseball Commission have been transferred from Cincinnati in preparation for the opening of the judge's office.

OPPOSITION.

Strong opposition has appeared to the proposal to exclude from shares in the $15,000 prize money for finishing second, the seven former White Sox players under indictment for participation in "throwing" the 1919 world series. They played with the 1920 White Sox until the confessions of Cicotte and Joe Jackson which led to their definite suspension just before the closing series of the season.

The prize money remains in the hands of two members of the old National Commission and the remaining members of the 1920 White Sox have voted to split into sixteen and one-half shares making about $900 each and excluding the seven suspended players.

BUYS THE BEST.

Comiskey, with a war chest bulging with money, is out to buy the best players available to rebuild his White Sox machine. Urban Faber sent in his signed contract today and will receive a substantial increase in salary for the next two seasons. The Sox hope to buy Joe Dugan from Connie Mack and the team will be in fairly good shape if this flashy third sacker is added to the staff.

Gleason also needs a shortstop. Reports have it that Heilman of Detroit may come to the Sox. Comiskey and Gleason are out after a number of promising athletes, but they will have to act quickly and unbuckle the old money belt to get them. Miller Huggins is out after players to plug up some holes in his Yankee outfit and has already grabbed young Johnny Mitchell, the Coast League star, in a deal that sent six men back to the minors. Eddie Herr, bone hunter for the Tigers, offered $20,000 for Mitchell, but the offer was refused.

FEW CHIRPS.

There are mighty few chirps from the hold-out camp this season. It is thought all the stars will get back into line now that the grand old game is under new management and a player is assured of a square deal.

GRID SEASON NEARING END.

nitude desires to consider it from all angles. Blue prints of the plan for removing the first nail will be completed and submitted the last day of the month, and soon after the work of removing it will be started.

By putting a large force on the job, and working night and day shifts, it is believed the first nail will be dragged out before the middle of December. Fresh crews will then be put to work on the second and third nails, providing the steam forceps are here by that time. Later the work will be speeded up by engaging a force of dentists to extract the nails, and these may be retained to put gold fillings in the knotholes in the fence when the structure is completed. It is hoped to make this by all odds the classiest minor league park in the country.

Nothing was moving at the ball park yesterday except an unidentified bungalow which came down Washington street aimed for an unknown destination. As smoke was issuing from the chimney, many believed the house to be traveling under its own power, but the good housewife was merely frying bacon and eggs over a coal fire. After the bacon was fried the warm fat was used for greasing the wooden rollers under the house. This gave rise to the report that it was a stolen house, and the inmates wanted to get away with it as noiselessly as possible. Another said it was an Ohio family who had made the trip West in their own house. Others expressed the opinion that it is a new family "seeing Los Angeles" in their own home. A fourth theory was advanced to the effect that the house belongs to a politician who is launching a front-porch campaign which will extend to every residence street in the city. A final hypothesis was that it is the work of pickpockets, it being argued that nobody except a light-fingered person could lift a bungalow off a town lot without making a noise, and being apprehended.

The politician-pickpocket theories had the larger following among those present.

While the local football public has itself focused on the U.S.C.-Oregon game which will be played at Pasadena tomorrow, we are reminded in a letter from J. J. Norton of another important intersectional contest—Dartmouth vs. University of Washington at Seattle next Saturday.

"Undoubtedly this is to the Northwest what the big New Year's classic is to the Southwest, although possibly not arousing quite the same country-wide interest. This game will open the new Seattle Stadium, the first of several imposing football arenas to be erected on the Coast.

Dartmouth after beating Cornell, 14 to 3, the University of Pennsylvania, 44 to 6, and Brown, 14 to 6 on successive Saturdays, took the train at the conclusion of the latter game and is due in Seattle, Saturday morning. There are thirty-five in the party. Capt. Jim Robertson is considered one of the greatest punters ever developed at Dartmouth, which is saying considerable.

The Dartmouth team is one of the best developed this year, and the game with Washington will furnish fuel for interesting, if not wholly enlightening conversation in the East vs. West argument.

Salvadore Holds McCann Even.

LIGHTWEIGHTS IN FAST DRAW.

McCann and Salvadore Put Up Vicious Scrap.

Phil Has First Two and Billy the Other Rounds.

Boxing Card at Doyle's Boasts Eight Set-tos.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

Billy McCann and Phil Salvadore boxed a dandy draw at Jack Doyle's pavilion last night. The bout was one of the fastest and most vicious that has been pulled off at the famous arena in some time.

McCann very nearly spoiled his far western career by entering the ring almost as fat as an exhibition seal.

He was plainly not in the pink of condition and this in a great measure was the cause of his poor showing in the first two rounds.

IN FINE SHAPE.

Salvadore was in perfect fettle and put up his best article of ficticuffs.

In the first two rounds it looked very rosy for Phil and he was winning hands down. Then McCann's Irish blood began to tingle and he let loose a line of scrapping that almost put the local lad out of business.

ALL SALVADORE.

In the first round Salvadore was all over his man—outboxed him and had the better of the infighting. McCann was slow and when he went to his corner was breathing heavily. Phil hardly drew a breath. It looked bad for the Clevelander in the second session. He was awful wild and seemed unable to land that dandy right of his.

In the middle of the round Phil shot a hard right to the jaw, staggering Billy, who appeared groggy for a moment. In the third round, however, McCann began some scrapping on his own account, catching Phil with a terrific left to the jaw that almost toppled him over. Salvadore was pretty tired when the gong sounded.

McCann seemed to get his wind in the final session and soon had Salvadore in a bad way. He shot a mean right to the mouth, drawing the juice and had Phil pretty well mussed up when the bell sounded. As each man had scored two rounds Referee Blake justly called the bout a draw.

The other bouts finished as follows: Bert Meyers beat George Lavigne; Young Papke and Eddie Burke, draw; Johnny Cline won over George Draw; Sugar Keeler knocked out Monte Woigast; Danny Edwards outboxed Marshall Booker; Louie Garcia defeated Jimmy Berry by a knockout, and Jack Martin put it on Harry Beecher.

vitation had been received, the football management was given to understand that one would be extended by the University of California should Princeton's acceptance be assured.

In a statement tonight, Knox Taylor, chairman of the football advisory committee, said the proposed trip had been given serious consideration and that it was with regret that it was found impracticable.

"A game with California," said Taylor, "would be an anticlimax to the Princeton season. The climate here now is so uncertain that it would be impossible to continue practice until the departure of the team for the west. Another thing which stands in the way of the trip is the vital importance of having the football players devote the proper time to scholastic work, which would not be possible were they to be kept in training for such a long period."

It was also pointed out that five members of the Princeton varsity football squad also are members of the basketball team, which is fighting the University of Pennsylvania for the lead in the intercollegiate league race.

None of the backfield men, now that Steers is definitely out of it, who were in the fray with the Crimson, will start against U.S.C. tomorrow.

Bill Rinehart, the quarterback, is a Salem boy, who entered Oregon in 1918, but was not in school last year. He weighs 165 pounds and is a good field general.

KEOKUK LAD.

George King, fullback, nicknamed "Tarzan" by his team-mates, hails from Keokuk, Iowa, where he was All-State interscholastic fullback. George packs 170 pounds on his carcass, and is 5 ft. 8in. tall.

Frank Hill, the left half, is a product of the Eugene High School. Frank doesn't displace much in the tonnage department, only 150 pounds, but makes up for this by speed and aggressiveness.

The Oregonians are staying at the Hotel Maryland. They will hold their final practice for the Turkey Day tilt with the Trojans this afternoon.

TOLEDO IS ASSURED BOWLING CONGRESS.

TOLEDO (O.) Nov. 23.—Toledo today was assured the 1922 national tournament of the American Bowling Congress. Al Langtry, secretary of the A.B.C., stopped off here on his way from Buffalo, and after a conference with local officials, announced that the 1922 meet would be held here if Toledo wants it.

HOREMANS DECLINES HOPPE'S CHALLENGE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Edouard Horemans, European billiard champion, has declined the challenge to meet Willie Hoppe, world's champion, before the end of this year, it was announced today. In a formal reply, Horemans expressed a desire to meet the champion next February or March.

DANCE SPECTACLE.

GRAUMAN TO STAGE ROSLOFF PRODUCTION.

By Grace Kingsley.

The sky's the limit—this always seems to be Sid Grauman's motto in the matter of spectacular production. Not content with giving us symphony orchestras, poems in color and unusual prologues, he is going ahead next week and is setting a new pace even for himself. He made the important announcement yesterday that he has engaged no less pretentious an aggregation than the Kosloff dancers, who will appear in a sensational production adapted from the famous Leginska Ballet of Russia.

This dance was given before the Shriners last week at Trinity Auditorium, and was a remarkable success.

In its oriental flavor, barbaric atmosphere and half-savage frenzy, the dance resembles the "Prince Igor" and others presented there a few years ago by Nijinski, but nothing exactly like Kosloff's production has ever before been offered in this country.

Mr. Kosloff has spent several months preparing the dance and training the young women and the man who will take part. The dancers are Estella Reed, Arnold Tamon, Lorraine Seitz, Ella Kreiger, Grace Gordon, Helen Sheldon, Grace Martin, Marguerite Beere, Vada Leigh and Priscilla Collon.

Special music has been arranged by Al Ivanow, the well-known balalaika player, and the unique costumes of the ballet have been carefully duplicated by Kosloff's costume department, so that an accurate reproduction of the typically Russian dance is assured.

Nancy Fair to London.

Nancy Fair, who is playing the leading role in "The Girl in the Limousine" at the Mason, is to go to London next season. Two offers have reached her from overseas as the result of her characterizations in a number of New York shows, including "East is West."

Miss Fair is still under contract with Al Woods, but it is understood that if the clever young woman wants to take a flyer into English productions, he won't be stingy, but will lend her to his London manager friends.

The European trip will also provide an opportunity for Miss Fair to visit Paris, at which city naturally every normal young lady wants to take a peek. She expects to do some shopping for clothes that will make the already fair Miss Fair even fairer.

Miss Fair's friends have been taking note of a diamond and platinum ring which she wears on the third finger of her left hand, but she won't admit there's any particular significance attached to it. Anyhow "not now."

Christy Cabanne to Film.

Christy Cabanne has finished his first picture made for Robertson-Cole, and is going to New York with it early next week. As soon as it has found a theatrical home in the metropolis, and he has had time to look about him and see the new shows, he plans to return and start on his next feature.

Doraldina to Travel.

Not having set her lively foot outside Los Angeles in many months, Doraldina, famous dancer and Metro star, is planning to travel around the country with her celluloid double in "Passion Fruit," making personal appearances at the theaters where it is being shown.

She may even be persuaded to do a few of her famous steps in some of the houses.

Her itinerary will include the largest cities of the country—like Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia among others.

Eltinge Forms Film Company.

They just can't seem to keep away from pictures, our best little stage stars. Take Julian Eltinge, for instance. He has just formed his own company, and is to take it to Del Monte in the course of a fortnight to put on the first of the Julian Eltinge productions.

Mr. Eltinge has been busy getting his cast together, and has engaged Ann May as his leading woman.

Heard on Broadway.

Grace Wallace: Dearie, do you know where I can get my bathing suit dry-cleaned?

Well-known Director: No, I'll never do it again. It's distinctly not good form to take your girl to a party where your wife is!

Chinese in Metro Films.

An entire retinue of trained Chinese servants, headed by that cutie little 17-year-old Bessie Mong, who has been seen in a number of picture productions, including "Broken Blossoms," are appearing in the Metro picture "What's the Matter With Marriage?" in support of Ora Carewe.

By the way, "What's the Matter With Marriage?" is Metro's idea of a good box-office title for Jack London's "The Little Lady of the Big House."

Probably, somewhere, the late Mr. London is looking about frantically for a ouija board.

Gladys Wants Double.

If you have picture aspirations and look something like Gladys Walton, and don't mind playing a humble double, it might be well for you to apply to Miss Walton at Universal City, for a job.

In her next Universal feature, to be directed by Harry B. Harris, the star will play a dual role, and in order to avoid the arduous work attached to thousands of feet of double exposure photography she is desirous of finding a girl who resembles her sufficiently to pose for her in the episodes where it is necessary for both characters to appear on the screen together.

ORIENTAL MELANGE AT BURBANK THEATER.

It is possible that the shimmie cannot be done according to rules and regulations on China tea, but down at the Burbank this week they are putting a wicked shake into "In Egypt."

The sphynx in the background hasn't a word to say, but Ed Armstrong and Henry Scherr make a lot of funny remarks apropos of everything from the harem to the dry Sahara, while the feminine principals and the thirty-six Baby D'x. bring the usual joys in their dancing and music.

The settings and costumes are particularly oriental.

ARBUCKLE GOING ABROAD.

Roscoe Arbuckle, the Famous Players-Lasky comedy star, is to sail for London in a few days on the Aquitania. Arbuckle is to remain abroad for a month, visiting principally in London and Paris.

EXTRAVAGANZA SOON

"CHU CHIN CHOW" WILD PLAY ENGAGEMENT HERE.

By Edwin Schallert.

Since we cannot have the latest spectacle which has been thrilling New York, namely, "Mecca," we will at least be able to regale ourselves shortly here with another production for which Morris Gest is co-sponsor. This is "Chu Chin Chow," which comes to the Mason the week of Dec. 13.

This spectacle is noted among other things for the remarkable display of costumes, particularly those of the Persian era. These are on view in the bazaar scene, where Mahbubah, the shrewish and penniless wife of Ali Baba, comes to buy new dresses with the gold which her husband found in the robbers' cave. The shopkeeper parades twenty of the most bizarre costumes before her.

One of the most striking, it is said, is an oriental dress with trousers and an enormous turban headdress five feet in diameter. It is built of wires festooned with silks and satins.

The girl wearing it enters to music of the orchestra and the gigantic headdress is made to sway in rhythm as she moves across the stage.

"Earthbound" Again.

Basil King's picturized story, "Earthbound," is having a second showing this week at the Alhambra Theater. The features ran for a period of weeks recently at the Miller Theater and is again drawing large audiences.

The spirituality of the theme has a wide popular appeal and the interpretations by Wyndham Standing, Naomi Childers, Flora Revalles and others are exceptional.

Anita Stewart Picture.

"Harriet and the Piper," Anita Stewart's rather unusual story of gay indiscretions and their consequences, is having a reshowing at the Palace Theater. Miss Stewart has won approval in this picture by the finesse she shows in a colorful role.

Griffith Film Attracts.

Still playing to capacity houses, D. W. Grimth's "Way Down East" entered the sixth week Monday at the Philharmonic Auditorium.

Many persons apparently have planned to celebrate the observation of Thanksgiving week by attending a performance of the feature, as the locale and the atmosphere are rather symbolical in a way of the spirit of the holiday.

Lillian Gish and Richard Balthelmess play the leading roles, and are supported by Mrs. David Landeau, Josephine Bernard, Mrs. Morgan Belmont, Patricia Fruen, Florence Short, Lowell Sherman, Burr McIntosh, Kate Bruce, Vivia Ogden, Porter Strong, George Neville, Edgar Nelson, Mary Hay, Creighton Hale and Emily Fitzroy.

Amato Here Tomorrow.

Pasquale Amato, the Italian baritone, to be heard at Trinity Auditorium next Saturday afternoon, will arrive here today. He comes direct from New York via the Northwest. He has been greeted by crowded auditoriums on his tour.

He is accompanied by Miss Kitty Beale, the American soprano, from the Metropolitan Opera Company, and William Tyroler, pianist.

Invited to Lecture.

As a result of his direction of "Are All men Alike," which is now showing at Tally's Theater, Philip Rosen has been asked to conduct a course of lectures on the motion-picture industry from the director's standpoint before the student body of a large eastern university.

Rosen's directorial successes include, "The Path She Chose," "The Road to Divorce," and other box-office hits. Before he became a director he was a star cameraman and still officiates as president of the American Society of Cinematographers.

Anniversary Week.

Anniversary of the opening of Grauman's Rialto Theater will be celebrated next week. "Something to Think About" will continue as the picture feature.

The house opened under the present management a year ago with the premiere of Cecil De Mille's "Male and Female."

"Letty" Preview.

An invitational preview of the Christie feature of "So Long Letty" will be given in honor of Oliver Morosco, original producer of the musical comedy, and Al Christie, who made the film adaptation, tonight at the Kinema Theater.

Gore brothers and Sol Lesser have received wires from members of the original stage cast regretting their inability to be present at the showing of the film here.

Grace Darmond, T. Roy Barnes, Colleen Moore and Walter Hiers portray the principal roles in the cinema version.

Cody's Independent.

Lew Cody is the latest entry into the independent producing field, according to an announcement by Irving Lesser, general manager of the Western Pictures Exploitation Company. Mr. Lesser has just secured the rights to "A Dangerous Pastime," Cody's first independent feature.

Cody's ability to star was established through his recent Robertson-Cole productions, "The Broken Butterfly," "The Beloved Cheater," "The Butterfly Man" and "Occasionally Yours."

"A Dangerous Pastime" was produced under the direction of James W. Horne, who also made the last Robertson-Cole picture. Elinor Fair and Cleo Ridgely appeared in the leading feminine roles.

MUSICAL.

ENSEMBLE CONCERT.

STRAUSS WORK ON MacDONALD-HOPE PROGRAM.

By Jeanne Redman.

An audience of musicians attended the first concert of the May Macdonald-Hope series of chamber music evenings Monday at the Ebell clubhouse. It was the first opportunity to hear Beyer-Hane in solo, and the 'cellist had ample opportunity to prove his capabilities and his fine musical sense in the Strauss Sonata, which he played on tour with the composer in Europe. The work is for piano and 'cello and is rich in emotion and sensitivity. The Andante is especially fine, and Mrs. Hope at the piano was entirely adequate.

The Beethoven Sonata, Opus 5, shows a strong Haydn influence, while maintaining the Beethoven characteristics, and was effectively given.

The trio by Goosens for flute, piano and 'cello was played here for the first time, with Leonardo De Lorenzo as flutist.

The work is called "Five Impressions of a Holiday in the Country" and was so well received as to bring the musicians back several times for applause.

Goosens is a young Englishman of Belgian birth and ancestry, and his work is extremely radical. Long-sustained passages for the 'cello, the flute in simple song, and the piano racing in glissando are fetching features of the composition. It is purely picturesque and makes no pretensions to depth, save perhaps in the chant of the village church, which is the only section reminiscent of Debussy.

As a whole, the work is fascinating and the character of country life was manifested in the song and dance strains throughout.

Kall Lecture at Ebell.

Alexis Kall continued his series of lectures on Russian composers yesterday at the Ebell clubhouse. Tschaikoksky, Glazounow and Liadow were among those discussed.

Kall gave a minute interpretation of the Fifth Symphony, which, he said, is perfectly familiar to the Russian masses and beloved by them. He heard it played six times during a brief visit in Petrograd recently.

He told many anecdotes of the favorite Russian, with personalities and character touches in abundance. He played, also, the Glazounow "Music Box," which was given here recently by the Philharmonic Orchestra.

A brief outline of the music of six composers, with short biographical sketches, was also presented.

The next lecture will be on the subject of the influence of Chopin on Russian music.

COMPLETE NEW BILL.

The Orpheum will proffer a complete change of bill next week. This is not so great a novelty now as it would have been a few months ago, as of late only the most prominent headline acts have been retained to complete the eight-act program as against seven acts in all other cities. There are thus four features in the new offering, one of these, "Varieties of 1920," being a musical revue with a chorus. The others include a sketch and two patter acts.

Women of All Ages and Times

Ask your mother, aunt, grandmother, they will tell you of folks they have known who were cured of the many distressing, painful ailments which occur in most women's lives, by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is sold by druggists, in both fluid and tablet form. What women say:

Mrs. Cora Pick, 5004 Martin St., Spokane, Wash., says: "When I was sixteen years old the local doctors all said there was no hope for me that I would die inside of six months of consumption. I read an advertisement in a paper about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and what it had done for other girls. I got a bottle of it and commenced to feel better right away and before I had finished the second bottle was all right. Have been regular ever since and am as healthy as any woman."

Mrs. W. D. Moore, 1946 No. Jackson St., Roseburg, Oregon, says: "I suffered something terrible, could scarcely stand on my feet. My head and back ached hard and I was weak and nervous. My legs and feet ached—would bloat, and I was troubled with constipation. I had a severe pain in my side. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Pellets and they cured me and I was well and strong. Then, during middle life I again took them and got through so well."

Mrs. R. B. Ralph, 60 Terllurum St., Redding Calif., says: "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is perfectly wonderful. I owe everything to this medicine. When I was passing through middle life I had hemorrhages, also suffered severe pain and had terrible headaches. I suffered everything. Finally, I decided to take the 'Favorite Prescription'; it stopped the headaches, the pains and the hemorrhages. I never had any more trouble."

COPS MUST NOT CUSS CITIZENS.

Old Rule Will be Enforced Strictly in Future.

Commissioners Want Polite System Made Reality.

Dismissals Come as Result of Code Violations.

Chief of Police Pendegast was yesterday instructed by Police Commissioners Wilson and Barry to enforce rigidly the long-standing rule of the department that police officers must not use profane language in dealing with citizens but must be polite and gentlemanly. Mayor Snyder has received complaints of violations of this rule by officers, and he and the commissioners are determined that swearing by officers on duty must stop. It is expected that an example will be made of the first policeman brought before the commission for a violation of the rule.

That the new chief is strictly enforcing the rules of the department was indicated yesterday by his dismissal of Leo S. Kristovich, who was charged with sleeping while he was on duty at the Mayor's home on the evening of the 16th inst. during the absence of the Mayor from the city.

The Chief also dismissed Patrolman Ivan R. Gist, who was given a leave of absence but failed to report back for duty on October 13, remaining absent without leave until last Monday. The commission sustained the Chief.

The commission also accepted the resignations yesterday of Patrolman Harry B. Royse and Michael M. O'Garra, and sent to the Chief for investigation charges of brutality filed by R. Miller of 630 East Fifth street against Patrolman S. Edgar German and Police Chauffeurs Charles S. White and George C. Anderson. Miller conducts a second-hand goods store and he charges that the three officers entered his store and as a result of protests over searching his establishment, carried him bodily to a patrol wagon, in which he was taken to the police station. Miller stated that he was willing to go to the station house in a street car.

The commissioners yesterday also sustained Chief Pendegast in his dismissal from the department of Patrolman Edward A. Crandall, who was given a hearing on charges that he had attempted unlawfully to enter the rooms of citizens.

The Queen Anne 10-Piece Suite illustrated is an example of these marvelous values.

This suite is enameled in jade green and decorated with medallions of roses. Even the interior of the Chifforobe is daintily hand-decorated.

Dainty, exquisite and "different" in its every detail, this suite is remarkably low priced at $1000.00.

Another 10-piece Queen Anne suite enameled in Parisian gray and decorted by hand with roses and lined with a delicate shade of lavender. It is re-priced, one-half off, at $750.

There are six other suites decorated in French gray, Chinese lacquer, Italian blue, or light mauve—all re-priced at ONE-HALF off.

And besides these offerings—EVERYTHING in the whole department of Bedroom Furniture is reduced from 10% to 33 1-3%, except two suites, the prices of which are restricted by the manufacturer.

ORANGES AGAIN DROP ON PRODUCE MARKET.

FANCY NAVELS ARE 50 CENTS PER BOX LOWER; NORTHERN CELERY WEAKER.

With the exception of a downward tendency for the new crop of oranges, and a decline in the price of northern celery, the local produce market was steady at the level of Monday's session, practically no price changes occurring yesterday. Navel oranges, for which the market was very weak yesterday on account of the increasing supplies, were 25 to 50 cents per box lower for the small sizes, while the special brands dropped 50 to 75 cents per box, according to quality. Homegrown celery ruled steady and unchanged, but the northern stock again declined, ruling about 25 cents per crate below previous quotations. For potatoes also a slightly weaker undertone prevailed, best stock changing hands at $2.75, as compared with $2.85 of the preceding day.

Tomatoes were steady both on the shipping and the wholesale markets. Cauliflower, however, again declined slightly, the majority of the sales yesterday being made about 10 cents per crate lower. The wire inquiry was moderate and the movement yesterday was light. Lettuce continued weak and in poor demand, but prices for this commodity were unchanged.

Ample Money for New Construction

The building situation in Los Angeles is very serious. The demand for residences is far in excess of the supply. This condition is apparently caused by the difficulty experienced in financing new construction.

We are prepared to handle any number of loans on new residences or apartment houses, either completed or to be built, if well located in Los Angeles or its environs.

Loans may equal, but not exceed, 50% of the appraised value and on residences the limit is $5000. Each loan is made for 15 years and may be paid off on or after three years without bonus. Interest is payable June 1 and December 1 in each year, and the principal is reduced by the payment semi-annually of 3% of the face of the loan. When "Building Loans" are made, papers must be recorded before any material is delivered or labor performed. Details will be furnished on application.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Oil Shortage in California Grows; Mines; Stocks; Bonds; Prices.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The development and production of the petroleum industry in California, as released by the statistical department of the Independent Oil Producers' Agency in Los Angeles yesterday, shows the total shortage for the year increased by 603,366 barrels during October, 1920, bringing the total yearly shortage to 7,518,542 barrels, a daily average of 25,625 barrels.

The production during October of 9,459,528 barrels amounted to 305,146 barrels per day, an increase of 928 barrels daily over the September daily production of 304,218 barrels.

Shipments during the current month totaled 10,062,896 barrels, which figure, 324,620 barrels a day, represents an increase of 11,249 barrels daily over the September daily shipments of 313,371 barrels.

Fifty-four wells were completed, with an initial daily output of 13,800 barrels, an increase of one completion, but a decrease in initial output of 6200 barrels per day. Seventy-three new rigs were erected, and ten wells abandoned during this period. There was an increase of twelve drilling wells during the month, bringing the total to 436. Wells producing during the month totaled 9444, an increase of forty-five over the September figure of 9399.

Development work during the past month indicates the presence of oil in commercial quantity at Huntington Beach, and the eyes of the oil industry are focused in this direction, watching wells which might, perhaps, establish the limits of this new field. While not officially designated a proven field, the report shows development work in this district for the current month.

UNITED EASTERN.

According to a statement made yesterday at the offices of A. W. Coote, the month of October was the best in the operative history of the United Eastern Mining Company. Production figures are:

Tons milled	7,900
Gross value	$205,617.40
Operating costs	88,446.90
Net operating revenue	117,470.50
Gross value, per ton	26.01
Net operating profit per ton	14.74

The net operating income for the month amounts to about 8.6 cents per share, as compared with dividend requirements of but 5 cents per share.

OTHER OATMAN NEWS.

The evidence in the apex suit brought by the Tom Reed company was closed some ten days ago, and the case is set for argument January 17. This is the suit filed about two years ago, involving the title to the former Big Jim ground, about one mile from the United Eastern workings. It affects in no way the property where the United Eastern has been mining and extracting ore since 1914.

The United American strike was made on the 600-foot level in the Aztec vein, drifting toward the Tom Reed ground. The Tom Reed is drifting at about the same depth toward the United American ground, and is now reported to have the drift within 200 feet of the property line, and for some weeks has been opening splendid milling ore with some high-grade.

Telluride is exploring on the 516-foot level and the operators believe they are near the vein, in which is expected a continuation of the high-grade values found on the 400-foot level, and on the lower level before the fault which threw the vein over was encountered.

Tom Reed reports high-grade ore on the 600-foot level of the Bald Eagle vein, drifting west.

Present developments in the Oatman district are of a stimulating nature, and may cause fresh interest in many Oatman issues, which have long been dormant.

Los Angeles Stocks.

Market opened stronger and soon developed into a battle of the oils. There was not much price change over the level of the preceding day, but the general undertone was firmer, and there were fewer spasmodic symptoms. A few of the leading oil issues were very active, and the United American mine, on the strength of news of a reported rich strike, continued to be a heavy trader.

Associated Oil was strong at 104½ to 5-8, but Republic Petroleum was the real leader due to the dividend declaration made the previous day by the board of directors. Twenty-five thousand shares of this stock changed hands around 34 cents.

Delaware Union was active within closely guarded price limitations, 23 7-8 being the day's high mark. General Petroleum was firm around 134½. California Union registered 175 and United closed at 50½ cents.

While the news from Oatman does not indicate the probable extent of the United American strike that stock enjoyed another hectic day. Under heavy pressure it sold down to 45 cents, but quickly rallied to closing transactions at 49 cents. A little United Eastern changed hands at $2.55.

On the industrial side the chief activity was in Edison common, seventy shares of which went over at 87½. Liberty Bonds as a whole were stronger and prices on practically all of the issues fractionally higher.

Back Home.

Henry M. Robinson, president of the First National and the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, has been returned to the directorate of the Union National and the Union Trust and Savings banks of Pasadena, a post held by Mr. Robinson before he was called to Washington to undertake a distinguished war service.

Equipment Issue.

The National City Company is offering $4,500,000 Chesapeake and Ohio equipment trust 6½ per cent certificates, issued under the Philadelphia plan. The maturities run from 1924 to 1935 inclusive, and the certificates are to be sold at prices to yield from 6.35 to 6.70, according to maturity. The issue is secured by equipment with a total cost of $8,118,000, this equipment consisting of twenty Mallet freight locomotives, five switching locomotives, and 1000 coal cars of 100 tons capacity each.

Reserve Board Vacancy.

The result of the mail ballot to elect a successor to J. E. Fishburn on the board of governors of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, has not been made public, although Dr. John Willis Baer, president of the Union National and the Union Trust and Savings banks, of Pasadena, is understood to have the best chance of election, having been placed in nomination by a majority of the banks in the district.

Mr. Fishburn is not eligible to re-election as a class A director because he is already a director of the class of bank which falls under this grouping. Others nominated for the important office were R. H. Judkins of Long Beach and A. N. Edlefson of the Peninsula National Bank at Portland.

A. B. C. Dohrmann of San Francisco, was nominated to succeed himself as a class B director of the Federal reserve bank.

STOCK DIVIDEND.

Stockholders in Globe Grain and Milling Company are receiving certificates constituting a 60 per cent stock dividend on the common stock of the company. This increases the capital stock of the concern from 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 common, and with the outstanding 2,000,000 preferred, makes a total of 11,000,000 shares.

A. D. Buckley, secretary of the Globe Grain and Milling Company calls attention to the fact that this is the third stock dividend to be issued by the company, which was organized Nov. 1, 1902. From its first quarterly dividend March 1, 1903, it paid a quarterly dividend until Dec. 1, 1913, when it was placed on a monthly basis of 1 per cent. The first stock dividend was issued Dec. 5, 1908, when a 25 per cent dividend in stock was declared. On May 27, 1914, a 75 per cent stock dividend was also issued.

THE SUN DIAL.

A typographically attractive and well edited anniversary edition of the Sun Dial is issued by the Sun Drug Company, in commemoration of the nineteenth birthday of that corporation. It tells in picture and text a story of remarkable growth in both retail and wholesale lines during the twelve months. The Sun is now operating twenty-one stores in Los Angeles and vicinity.

AS OTHERS SEE IT.

The proposal of the American Bankers' Association to organize, under the Edge law, a $100,000,000 corporation to finance foreign trade is excellent. Now that we are witnessing a falling off in home trade, an increase in unemployment, a collapse in many prices and an oversupply of products, the necessity for stimulating sales to other countries is becoming more clearly recognized by all classes, including labor. The elementary thought is being grasped that if we have not enough buyers at home for what we produce or make, then the common sense thing to do is to find foreign buyers.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

GOLD IMPORTS.

Total imports of gold during the first ten months of the year amounted to $315,518,748. Total exports for the same period $295,263,164. This is said to be the first time since January 1 that the imports have exceeded the exports.

A Profitable Ship Repair Business

One of the most important phases of the business of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company is its ship repair business. The need for a repair plant in this location has been very pressing. The Company's new 12,000-ton dry dock, built at a cost of approximately $1,250,000, affords the only adequate dry dock facilities between the Canal and San Francisco.

The splendid equipment of this Company at Los Angeles Harbor will do much to increase the value of the Port, especially in face of the international trade that is now rapidly developing.

In addition to the dry dock, the properties of the Company consist of extensive buildings, plants, machinery and valuable lease rights. Their value is estimated at $4,844,623. A first mortgage on these properties is the security back of the 8% Serial Gold Bonds of this Company. Total assets are over $8,300,000, or more than six times this issue. Net quick assets must be maintained at 125% of outstanding bonds.

Serial retirement of bonds from 1921 to 1930 operates to increase constantly the already large equity in property.

We recommend these bonds for your investment as a sound, profitable security. Call at our office today, write or phone for full information.

The price of these bonds is 100 and interest for all maturities, to yield 8 per cent. Get full information today.

Seventh & Broadway Building Co.

Need

During the period of the World War building activities in Los Angeles practically ceased. Today we are several years behind the demand for high-class store and office space in the downtown district. The modern 12-story "Class A" office, store and theater building now being erected by the Seventh and Broadway Building Company, a subsidiary of Loew's, Inc. (a $19,000,000 corporation) will help meet this demand.

Location

The building is now being constructed on the southwest corner of Broadway and Seventh street, on which the Company has a 98-year lease. This corner is the center of traffic and the heart of the shopping district of the city. The continuing importance of this location is assured by the fact that the seven largest department stores and the seven largest banks are all permanently located within three blocks.

Protective Features

There is now available $1,275,000 to be applied to the actual cost of the building. In addition, there has been executed by the company a bond of $500,000 guaranteeing the completion of the building free of other liens and a deposit of $100,000 has been made with the lessor to guarantee the payment of the ground lease during construction. After completion net earnings are conservatively estimated at 3½ times bond interest and principal requirements. Furthermore, the full compliance by the company with all the terms of the ground lease, etc., is unconditionally guaranteed by Loew's, Inc., until the full amount of principal and interest due shall have been paid.

Taking into consideration intrinsic values and guarantees we believe this issue of First Mortgage 7% Serial Gold Bonds is an exceptional real estate improvement bond investment.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Buoyancy marked the opening of today's trading on the stock exchange, but the market failed to retain its early promise of further improvement and a sharp reversal set in before noon.

In the morning, leaders augmented recent recoveries by one to four points on extensive operations.

According to reports, the holdings of speculative interests in prominent industrial companies have been transferred by private settlement from weak to strong hands as a result of the severe collapse of prices and shrinkage of war profits.

With the reversal, junior rails became the center of a concerted drive at reactions of one to six points, with New Haven as the chief sufferer. Weakness of this group was attributed to the frank statements made before the interstate commerce commission yesterday, in which it was declared that receiverships were inevitable unless these roads were permitted to make freight readjustments.

Shippings, steels and equipments cancelled their advances in large part while the market was experiencing its secondary reactions, losses exceeding gains at the irregular close. Sales amounted to 1,100,000 shares.

Money and foreign exchange were stabilizing influences, call loans being made at the unusually low rate of 6 per cent, while remittances to London and continental Europe were steady.

Bonds tended higher, all Liberty and Victory issues, with one exception, closing at gains. Total sales, par value, $15,300,000. Old United States 4s were 1-2 cent lower on call.

CAPITALIZATION
(as officially reported)

Capital Stock (authorized)	$400,000
To be immediately issued	300,000
First Mortgage Bonds (authorized and issued)	260,000

These bonds are secured by a first mortgage on the property of the Fruitvale Mutual Water Company, which serves with water for domestic and irrigation purposes approximately 3000 acres of productive farm lands in the San Jacinto Valley between the towns of San Jacinto and Hemet.

The properties of the Company under the mortgage consist of real estate, cement-lined canals, pipe lines, wells, pumping plants, rights of way and very valuable water rights. An appraisal of these properties made for us by Mr. F. C. Finkle, Consulting Engineer, shows a value, based on pre-war prices, of $937,463, and at present prices a value of $1,032,983, or over 3½ times the bond issue.

Mr. Finkle reports: "The water supply of the Company is safe and permanent and its irrigation system is as well designed and constructed as other works of the same kind in Southern California. The system is complete, well adapted to its purposes, protected against physical interference from others and economical to operate."

We call attention to the following strong features of this issue:

SECURITY. The bonds are secured by a first closed mortgage on all the Company's properties, the present conservatively appraised value of which is in excess of 3½ times the amount of the bonds outstanding.

INDIRECT SECURITY. This being a Mutual Water Company, its only stockholders are the land owners under the system. The 3000 acres served, to which the irrigation water is essential, are conservatively appraised in excess of $1,500,000.

SERIAL BOND RETIREMENT. Under the terms of the Trust Deed securing the issue, provision is made for a gradual reduction of the indebtedness, by means of serial retirement, thus constantly increasing the already large equity in the properties.

LOW OPENING IN NEW YORK COTTON.

LOCAL MARKET EASIER AND ABOUT 6 TO 7 POINTS OFF PREVIOUS CLOSE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The New York cotton market opened 5 points lower on December and 1 to 15 points higher on other months. Liverpool was a good seller at the start. Spot houses and Wall-street interests took the offerings. Later the local market was easier and about 6 to 7 points under last night's close.

The decline carried prices off 20 to 44 points. There were rallies of 15 to 20 points around midday. Liverpool declined on distressed liquidation of straddle accounts and on the advance in sterling exchange rates.

Wheat Oversold; Corn Liquidated; Oats Trade Big.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—A change for the better in the grain markets today was due largely to an oversold condition in wheat while corn and oats had been well liquidated. At the close wheat was 2@3¼ cents higher, with May contracts 13@22½ cents, rye 2¾@5¼ cents and barley 3@5 cents higher for the day. Julius Rosenwald, former wheat director, who was in Chicago, said he was more friendly to wheat and believed the market oversold. This had a wholesome effect in checking a general covering movement, and prices moved up 10 to 11 cents from the early low point, more than regaining the previous day's loss on March, which showed the most strength.

Commission houses that took the bull side late Monday were again active and the largest shorts were credited with covering, as were houses with eastern connections, while the selling was moderate and until May touched 74 cents which general commission-house offerings increased. A few local professionals fought the advance but the close was around the top.

A big trade was on in oats with heavy covering by local shorts and buying by a few commission houses that were bullish. There was heavy selling of December and active changing in buying December and selling May at 4¼@5 cents difference.

BARLEY ADVANCES $1.50 TO $2 PER TON.

Barley advanced sharply from a weak opening yesterday, and at the close of the call all shipments of this cereal were considerably higher than the closing prices of the preceding day. The track article made an advance of $1.75 per ton, the transit and twenty-day shipments were $2 higher, the ten-day delivery made a gain of $1.50 per ton, and the fifteen-day article closed $1.25 above Monday's level, in the deferral months. November advanced $1.50 per ton, and the December shipment registered an advance of $2. Milo also reflected a firmer tendency, although there was a wide spread between bid and asked prices, and no sales were transacted.

Contentment

ROOFS AND WALLS and floors do not make a home. Rather is it the spirit of contentment, well-being and happiness, most positively created through living-comforts, that make home life a reality.

Credit has been a huge factor in bringing contentment and harmony into millions of homes. It has enabled the person of limited means to provide creature-comforts that otherwise would have been quite impossible. It has provided a cushioned and comfortable existence for lives that otherwise might have been drab and dreary. It has relieved cheap ideals and sordid surroundings.

This organization welcomes you. It asks you to avail yourself of the hundreds of beautiful things now on display here, that will make your home quietly lovely without being extravagant, through the use of your credit.

MANY CHURCHES IN GROUP PLAN.

City Districted for Sermons on Thanksgiving Eve.

Ball at Armory and Gay Time Planned at Beach City.

Salvation Army Seeking Milk for Babies of Poor.

Thanksgiving observances in Los Angeles will begin this evening with programs ranging all the way from joint prayer and Thanksgiving services in churches in different sections of the city to the military ball to be given at the Armory by the Los Angeles National Guard regiment and pier dancing and fireworks at near-by beach resorts.

Special Thanksgiving Eve church services for different sections of the city have been arranged for tonight by the Church Federation of Los Angeles.

In the Pico Heights district the combined choirs of the Pico Heights Methodist, Pico Heights Congregational, Pico Heights Christian, St. James Episcopal, Our Savior's Norwegian and Danish Lutheran, Fifth-avenue Christian Church and the Nazarene Mission will sing at the joint services to be held at 7:30 o'clock th s evening in the Pico Heights Methodist Church at Twelfth and Fedora streets. The pastors who will take part in the service are Rev. J. M. Richards, Rev. F. G. Watson, Rev. Leonard G. Thompson, Rev. F. B. Hoff and Rev. S. M. Barnard.

UNION SQUARE PLANS.

The West Adams Methodist, St. James Methodist, West Adams Presbyterian, Magnolia-avenue Christian, Olivet Congregational and Plymouth Congregational churches will join in the services announced for this evening at 7:45 o'clock at the St. James Methodist Church at Twenty-second street and Union avenue. This arrangement is made for the residents of Union Square district, and those who will take part in the services are Rev. John Nicholson, Dr. W. H. Fishburn, Rev. George A. Andrews, Rev. Ray C. Harker, Rev. C. C. Sinclair and Rev. Alfred Pomfret.

The Vermont Square district service will be conducted at the Vermont Square Methodist Church at Vernon and Budlong avenues at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. Albert Flick, Rev. C. D. Lewis and Rev. A. S. Donat. The congregations which will be merged for the evening are those of the Vermont Square Methodist, West Forty-ninth Street United Presbyterian, Vermont Square Christian, St. Andrews Episcopal and Pilgrim Congregational churches.

The Knox Presbyterian Church at Forty-second and Figueroa streets has been chosen as the place for the South Main street district joint services, which will be begun at 7:30 o'clock, under the leadership of Rev. Gordon Palmer, Rev. G. A. Reigler, Rev. Leslie L. Boyd, Rev. W. W. Overton, Rev. H. M. Barton and Rev. H. V. Lansley. In this district are the South Main Street Methodist, Westland Methodist, Woodlawn Methodist, South Manchester Baptist, South Park Baptist, Knox Presbyterian and Third United Brethren churches.

Other union church services are being outlined for different hours tomorrow in various sections of the city.

BUSY DAY IN SCHOOLS.

This afternoon the students of the different high schools and pupils in many of the grade schools will stage special Thanksgiving performances, most of which will be based upon the landing of the Pilgrims, or upon events of early Colonial days. One of the most ambitious of these pageants will be that to be given at the Los Angeles High School, where a play based upon Hawthorne's "Maypole of Merry Mount" has been under careful rehearsal for several weeks.

President Wilson's Thanksgiving proclamation will be read in all of the public schools today, and also all of the churches either this evening or tomorrow.

An exhibit of art work from 600 classes in 168 schools of the city will be opened today at 419 South Olive street. Almost all of this work has to do with Thanksgiving Day or with the tercentenary celebration of the landing of the Pilgrims.

A concert at 8 o'clock this evening at the Armory at Exposition Park will precede the military ball to be given at 8:30 o'clock by the Los Angeles Infantry Regiment of the National Guard. This affair, at which Gov. Stephens is expected to be present, celebrates official recognition of the regiment by the War Department.

There will also be special dancing programs at Venice and at other piers along the beach tonight, and many turkey raffles have been announced at the amusement resorts. Tonight and tomorrow will also be marked at Venice by special band concerts, and tomorrow night the celebration will be concluded with a masked carnival ball at the Venice pavilion and with a display of fireworks from the pier.

WANTS MILK FOR BABIES.

Brigadier Boyd of the Salvation Army will conduct a special drive today to obtain donations to the Salvation Army fund for the distribution of milk to the babies and young children in poor families in the city. Already this fund has expended $11,000 this year for 72,622 quarts of milk, which have been distributed from the depot maintained at Normal Hill Center. Offices for this charity are located at room 502, Chamber of Commerce Building.

Beginning tomorrow, and continuing until Sunday night, the Stephenson Avenue Business Men's Association will conduct their annual Thanksgiving celebration and carnival at Stephenson avenue and Laguna street.

The special Thanksgiving pageant arranged by the recently-organized Community Park and Art Association, with the co-operation of the Hollywood Woman's Club, Community Chorus, Apollo Club, Boy Scouts and other organizations, will be given Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the sixty-acre site on Highland avenue near Cahuenga avenue, which the association hopes to purchase for an art center. This pageant, with a cast headed by Hedwig Reicher, will include choruses of about 1500 people, and will depict Colonial history from the landing of the Mayflower to the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

MERRILL'S LIBEL SUIT IS STARTED.

The $25,000 libel suit of Charles L. Merrill against the Times-Mirror Company, growing out of the raid of the police and members of the American Legion on the Rex pool hall, 530 South Spring street, Dec. 13, 1919, went to trial before Judge Hewitt yesterday. The libel suit is based on the report of the raid published in The Times the following day. Mr. Merrill, who conducted the pool hall, charges that the report of his arrest was false and malicious. This is denied by the defendant, represented at the trial by Attorney Cosgrove of Hunsaker, Britt and Cosgrove.

MUST HURRY UP CLAIMS.

Register Groves and Receiver Mitchell of the local land office yesterday received a ruling from Commissioner Clay Tallman, of the general land office, that overpaid fees due entrymen must be applied for within two years of such payment, or they will not be refunded.
